

Bible Believers Bookshop April 2012 Price List

Most of the Bibles we sell are from Local Church Bible Publishers in the United States. LCBP - Bearing Precious Seed publish, distribute and sell KJV Bibles as a ministry. As such, they sell their Bibles at cost. We, in turn, are selling all Bibles for the amount it costs us to get them here. We do not add any mark-up to the Bibles. As the cost for each shipment fluctuates, pricing of individual Bibles change to reflect actual cost. Prices listed are an indication and will be confirmed at time of order. Thank you.

4:12 Discipleship Program for Two	TF1175	$ 8.50
4:12 is an eight week course designed for this specific purpose—to help older girls or mothers and younger girls spend one-on-one time together studying God's Word, discussing important areas of life, committing to pray for each other, and holding each other accountable in Scripture memory and other disciplines and projects. The name 4:12 comes from Ephesians 4:12, Colossians 4:12, and I Timothy 4:12—three verses which really sum up the goal of this discipleship course.
40 Ways To Protect the Heart Of Your Daughter - CD	TF1325	$ 8.50
In this session, Harold Mally shares insights from his family and experience about how to protect daughters by helping them establish their own personal convictions. Thought there are naturally many more ways than 40, Harold has chosen 40 that stand out as key elements and he briefly shares about each and why they are important. Each item is a concept that parents need to understand along with practical steps of action that they can take. This will hopefully be both encouraging to parents and bring to light areas that may need attention. Harold Mally. Running Time: 33 min

ABC Book of Bible People - Bible Stories for Young Readers Series	RSP2717	$ 8.50
ABC Book of Bible People has short stories about many people in the Bible – about prophets, servants, kings, children, mothers and many more. Each letter of the alphabet is illustrated by one or more Bible characters. The theme of this series is “Blessed is he that readeth” Revelation 1:3. In the back of the book are several pages with questions and answers relating to each letter. The illustrations are realistic and beautifully done. 83 pages.
Abide in Christ - Andrew Murray	BBM02	$ 14.00
While walking with their Lord the Apostles were instructed by Him to “Follow Me”. After their Lord’s ascension His words to them were “Abide in Me”. Sadly, many Christians today have trusted Him for pardon, for help and seek to obey Him in various degrees while failing to realize the benefits of the union, the fellowship and the oneness that our Lord invites us to enjoy when He invites us with the words “Abide in Me”. You will find Andrew Murray’s book on this subject a challenge and a blessing to your walk with the Lord. Andrew Murray. 169 pages
Absolute Surrender and Other Addresses - Andrew Murray	BBM01	$ 8.00
If obedience is the foremost requirement for a Christian, then the greatest need afterward is absolute surrender to the Lord and His Word. Completely yield yourself to His guiding hand. This will place you completely in God’s hands to be shaped and molded into the image of His Son. You will be ready to be instructed in the things pertaining to your new life in Christ. You will be empty of self and ready to be filled by the Master. Andrew Murray. 101 pages

Advanced Bible Study Series - Acts	WOL53	$ 14.00
This course covers one of the most exciting and important books in the Bible. It deals very practically with church and missionary endeavor and also covers many important and foundation doctrines and practices, such as the resurrection and second coming of Christ, the Holy Spirit, salvation, repentance, inspiration, preaching, prophecy, baptism, church membership, the Lord’s supper, Christian charity, apostles, deacons, missionaries, pastors, bishops, ordination, offerings, the nature of the church, prayer, holiness, martyrdom, and evangelism. The course refutes many false doctrines that are prevalent today, such as Charismatic tongues, healing, and second blessing. It clears up many controversial issues such as the difference between the baptism and filling of the Holy Spirit, the woman’s role in the ministry, baptismal regeneration, election, sign miracles, repentance, modern church growth practices, and how to deal with false teaching. The course includes several Bible maps, and the student learns where each event in the book of Acts takes place. 168 pages - perfect bound
Advanced Bible Study Series - Digital Edition	WOL22	$ 150.00
Way of Life’s Advanced Bible Studies Series is a serious set of Bible studies, equivalent to a complete Bible College curriculum. We don’t believe that you will find better quality, more truly life-changing Bible courses from any other source. They are continually revising the courses, and with each new edition they become more mature. There are currently 20 volumes averaging 265 pages each. The subjects are : Acts, Bible History and Geography, The Bible Version Issue, Defense of the Faith, First Corinthians, The Four Gospels, Genesis, Give Attendance to Doctrine, Hebrews, A History of the Churches from a Baptist Perspective, How to Study the Bible, James, Job, The New Testament Church, Pastoral Epistles, Proverbs, Psalms, Revelation, Romans, and Understanding Bible Prophecy. (The place to start is with “How to Study the Bible.) The courses are based strictly upon the King James Bible and the powerful word studies assist in the understanding of the KJV but do not cast doubt upon it. They are thorough and comprehensive, yet they are laid out in outlines that are easily taught. They are very practical and have the objective of producing well-equipped Christian soldiers that have a solid understanding of the Bible and God’s perfect will. They stress holy and obedient Christian living and separation from worldliness and error. They magnify evangelism and the New Testament church and promote world missions. They emphasize the essential differences between law and grace, the church and Israel, positional and practical sanctification, and they continually fortify the student’s understanding of the life-changing doctrines such as justification, substitutionary atonement, and eternal security. The courses are non-Calvinistic and interpret Bible prophecy from a literal pre-tribulation perspective. The diligent student can be prepared to stand against the wiles of the Devil and to refute the major theological heresies of our day. One pastor said the books “are extremely helpful for any Christian, no matter where they are spiritually; the practical application is extremely helpful and edifying.” All the books plus workbooks and test sheets are included in one CD. The books are in PDF format and are searchable. This is a powerful study tool for personal study or for teachers who are using this material in class.
Advanced Bible Study Series - Proverbs	WOL54	$ 34.00
The theme of this powerful book is finding wisdom through the fear of the Lord, and we have titled the course “Wisdom for the Wise and Foolish,” because Proverbs can help the foolish become wise and the wise become wiser. It is one of the most practical books in the Bible. True godliness gets down to where we live our everyday lives and involves every activity and relationship. It is first of all a book for young people, being addressed to “my son” and “my children.” Youth is the best time to learn wisdom, and this is where Proverbs begins, but it is also a book for saints of all ages. The book of Proverbs contains more wisdom about human life and the operation of home, society, commerce, and government than all of this world’s secular colleges and universities combined. There is more sound information on child training in the little book of Proverbs than in all of the child psychology books that have ever been written. The breadth of Proverbs is amazing. It contains practical wisdom for every type and class of person, for the king and the subject, the simple and the prudent, the male and the female, the young and the old, the rich and the poor, the master and the servant, the wise and the foolish, the married and the unmarried, the husband and the wife, the parent and the child, the angry and the calm, the patient and the impatient, the sluggard and the diligent, the friend and the enemy, the sad and the joyful, the one who talks much and the one who talks little. The book of Proverbs is a mirror that shows us the condition of our hearts. This course contains four major sections: (1) an introduction to Proverbs, (2) a verse byverse study of Proverbs 1-9 and Proverbs 31, (3) studies of the major themes of Proverbs 10-30 (Anger, Child Discipline, Counsel, the Fool, Friendship, the Poor, Pride, the Sluggard, the Talebearer, the Tongue, and Wine), (4) and studies of many of the important individual proverbs. 309 pages

Answers To My Jehovah's Witness Friends	CK135	$ 11.80

When Jehovah's Witnesses come to your door, have you ever wished you could get them off their memorized scripts and show them what the Bible really teaches? Have you ever wished you had the information necessary to lovingly show them why their religion is wrong? Now you can!

Using many quotes from Watchtower leaders, this small book exposes the errors of this false religion, presenting thought-provoking questions Jehovah's Witnesses can't answer. Don't turn them away from your door saying, "I'm not interested." Learn the questions that will make them think, so you can effectively share the true gospel with them.

Did you know? - In 1889, Jehovah's Witness founder C.T. Russell predicted:

"...the final end of the kingdoms of this world, and the establishment of the Kingdom of God, will be accomplished at the end of A.D. 1914."

This is one in a long list of unfulfilled Jehovah's Witness Bible prophecies that are revealed in this book.

Gary Maldaner. 8 pages.

Are You Serious About Marriage	K2192	$ 19.40

How is your marriage doing? Do you have a close, loving relationship with your husband? Do you feel that you are one, as you set out to be years ago? Or are things beginning to unravel as the stresses of life mount? Are you disappointed in your husband? Are you disappointed in life? Are you disappointed in your marriage? Are you struggling? Perhaps this little book, Are You Serious About Marriage, will shed some light on the perplexing issues women face. It is not written from a know-it-all attitude but from the heart of a woman that knew nothing, and had to learn along the way. It is not a "20 Steps to a Great Marriage", but the sharing of a journey to become a wife as God has intended a woman to be.

After having had a tremendous number of requests from their former In Keeping With the Faith subscribers, Keepers of the Faith decided to put this series of marriage articles into a book. They did and it now continues to bless and help wives to be godly, loving helpmeets to their husbands. People have requested them for future reference, for their children, for newly married women, for women who are struggling in their marriages, for Bible studies, and for those young women preparing for marriage. Keepers have received countless testimonies of changed lives, and changed marriages, as a result of these articles. If you are ready for a change and want to really get serious about your marriage, give this a read. 178 pages.

Aunt Hannah, Martha, and John	K3375	$ 22.00
--------------------------------------	--------------	-----------------

Mrs. Alden has written nearly 100 books and a hundred plus short stories. I (Susan) have read nearly eighty of her books and scores of her stories, and out of them all, this is my favorite story. Perhaps it is my age, and I readily identify with Aunt Hannah, but I promise you this story has something for nearly everyone. Many events in this story are true and taken from Mrs. Alden's own life. It is rich in characterizations, and you will be laughing and smiling your way through much of it. It is the story of a young preacher and his wife, John and Martha, beginning their newly married life at the same time they are undertaking their first ministry in a church. Although they love the Lord, and are eager to serve Him, and have the highest expectations, they have much to learn about the realities of pastoring a people and at the same time adjusting to marriage. Aunt Hannah reared John from his childhood so she is the mother who gives a helping hand and sage advice as needed, all the while continuing to grow in her own Christian walk. 294 pages.

George Müller. 736 pages.
Avoiding the Snare of Seventh Day Adventism	WOL 36	$ 16.00
Called the best on the subject by the editor of The Baptist Challenge, this book is diligently researched from official publications of the Seventh-day Adventist organization. The author proves conclusively that the Seventh-day Adventist gospel is false. The two major divisions of the book are: “Adventist History Proves It is Heretical” and “Adventist Doctrine Proves It Is Heretical.” The book analyzes Adventist doctrines such as Sabbath-keeping, Soul-sleep, Annihilation of the wicked, Ellen White as a Prophetess, Investigative Judgment, and Misuse of the Mosaic Law. Another chapter is titled “Why Some Have Considered Seventh-day Adventism Evangelical.” This analyzes Walter Martin’s (author of Kingdom of the Cults) faulty view of Adventism. The 2nd edition (1999) includes selections from D.M. Canright’s 1898 book Seventh-day Adventism Renounced. Canright was an early leader in Adventism who left and became a Baptist pastor. The 2nd edition also includes a chapter entitled “Adventists Wanted Me to Revise This Book,” describing the attempt by the Seventh-day Adventist denomination to have me change the book. 165 pages.

Bede's Charity	K3221	$ 18.00
Truly this is one of the finest, most Christ-centered books we have read. You will see Jesus on page after page of this story. Bede’s Charity is the story of a woman whose daily life was a continual reflection of her love for, and trust in, the Lord Jesus Christ. She denied self for the good of her family; she took up her cross wherever it lay; she praised the Lord in all situations and found contentment in life despite nearly unbelievable adversities. Through the pages of this book, you will see Jesus, and His love and care for a solitary soul. This story will encourage you and inspire you to live for Him, Who did so much for us. KOF Old Reprint. Hesba Stretton. 181 pages.
Before You Meet Prince Charming	TF1085	$ 20.00
This guide to radiant purity combines the thoughts and events in the life of a young princess with solid, clear teaching of Biblical convictions that young ladies today need to grasp. Bible Doctrines Affected by Modern Versions	BB01	$ 6.00
Are the Modern Versions and the King James Version both the Word of God? How can they be when they differ so? With the devil out to cause man to doubt, corrupt and misquote God's Word, it has become a real battleground. Modern versions today all claim to be more accurate or more readable renderings of the Word of God and that no Bible Doctrines are affected by the changes. Are the Modern Versions and the King James Version both the Word of God? How can they be when they differ so? Read Brother Freeman's answer to this question.

Bible Fundamentals - The Book of Proverbs - Sunday School Lesson Series WOL30 $ 35.00

These lessons deal with one of the most amazing and practical books in the Bible. Proverbs is first of all a book for young people, being addressed to "my son" and "my children." Youth is the best time to learn wisdom, and this is where Proverbs begins, but it is also a book for saints of all ages. The book of Proverbs contains more wisdom about human life and the operation of home, society, commerce, and government than all of this world's secular colleges and universities combined. The breadth of Proverbs is amazing. It contains practical wisdom for every type and class of person, for the king and the subject, the simple and the prudent, the male and the female, the young and the old, the rich and the poor, the master and the servant, the wise and the foolish, the married and the unmarried, the husband and the wife, the parent and the child, the angry and the calm, the patient and the impatient, the sluggard and the diligent, the friend and the enemy, the sad and the joyful, the one who talks much and the one who talks little. The book of Proverbs is a mirror that shows us the condition of our hearts.

This course contains four major sections: (1) an introduction to Proverbs, (2) a verse by verse study of Proverbs 1-9 and Proverbs 31, (3) studies of the major themes of Proverbs 10-30 (Anger, Child Discipline, Counsel, the Fool, Friendship, the Poor, Pride, the Sluggard, the Talebearer, the Tongue, and Wine), (4) and studies of many of the important individual proverbs.

8.5 x 11", Spiral Bound, 200 pages.

Bible Stories for Young Readers Series - Set of 6 RSP271SET $ 37.90

This series has been planned to provide good, worthwhile reading material on a level that young children can read and understand. We have endeavored to put Bible facts in simple, childlike language so that young readers can read it themselves. It is our prayer that through reading these Bible facts at an early age, the child will develop a strong faith in God, a proper fear of God, and a wealth of Bible knowledge. We have made an effort to keep all the Bible facts Scripturally accurate. Each book is designed to teach God's overruling power, His holiness, His great love, and His watchful care over His children. The purpose of this series is to make the Bible interesting for children. When children read the Bible because of interest stirred by reading these stories, our efforts will have been well rewarded. The theme of this series is "Blessed is he that readeth" (Revelation 1:3). This set includes: Bible Numbers, Dictionary of Bible Animals, ABC Book of Bible People, Bible Time, Children of the Old Testament & Children of the New Testament.

Bunyan, John & Moody, DL - Biography	K4095	$ 16.00
John Bunyan was a preacher, author, husband, father and one of the most faithful followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. He chose prison rather than freedom. He chose poverty rather than riches. He chose loneliness rather than family. Through it all, he spent his time studying God's Word and writing from his prison cell. He wrote Pilgrim's Progress which became the world's best selling book next to the Bible. Surely, as the Bible says, "their works do follow them." John Bunyan's works are still following him as thousands upon thousands are still reading about him and his books. His life is well worth reading! ~This biography of D. L. Moody recounts the life of a busy man who, upon conversion to the Lord Jesus Christ, gave his life wholly to Him. D. L. Moody loved children and knew they, too, needed to hear about his Saviour. He put his love into action by creating Sunday schools for the poor and needy children of Chicago. He taught others how to do what he was doing, so they, too, could reach lost children for the Lord. It is incredible what one life, wholly surrendered to God, can do! 144 pages.

Calvinism Debate, The - Book	WOL41	$ 10.00
I (David Cloud) have examined Calvinism many times during the past three decades and have read materials such as Calvin's Institutes; Arthur Pink's The Sovereignty of God; the Westminster Confession of Faith; Iain Murray's Spurgeon vs. the Hyper-Calvinists; Debating Calvinism: Five Points, Two Views by Dave Hunt and James White, to name a few. As best as I know how, I have studied these materials with the sole desire to know the truth and to follow it wherever it leads. Thus, I have made a considerable effort to understand Calvinism properly and not to misrepresent it (though I have learned that a non-Calvinist will ALWAYS be charged with misrepresentation). The chapters in this book include The Central Errors of Calvinism, Beware of Quick Prayerism, Calvin's Camels (Scriptures that contradict Calvinism), Calvinism's Proof Texts Examined, and What about Hyper-Calvinism? Carey, William & Taylor, Hudson - Biography	K4100	$ 16.00
~The saying "You are becoming what you will be" certainly rang true in William Carey's life. As a boy, he possessed an insatiable appetite for learning of every type. He was an avid reader and studier of nature. He was diligent and displayed great perseverance. He used all these traits in his life's calling of being a pioneer missionary to India. He served the Lord Jesus Christ faithfully unto the end. ~Hudson Taylor was a pioneer missionary to China. He labored incessantly day and night to bring the Gospel to China's millions. His life is an inspiration of faithfulness and steadfastness, always keeping his heart aimed on the goal set before him. He suffered much sickness and personal deprivation with a willing spirit as he continued his work for the Lord. It is amazing to read what one man, wholly dedicated to God, can accomplish with God's blessing, leadership, and direction. J. J. Ellis. 137 pages.

Celestial Railroad, The - An Allegory	CLP241505	$	5.90
Nathaniel Hawthorne looked at the Christianity of the mid-1800s and found it wanting. He wrote this allegory, using Pilgrim's Progress as a basis, showing a man setting out for the Celestial City as Christian of old did. However, Hawthorne's pilgrim takes the new and improved route, traveling on the Celestial Railroad. The author's insights into modern Christianity will challenge you to diligently walk the true pilgrim way. Nathaniel Hawthorne. 36 pages
Charity - Character Curriculum	K5841	$	12.40
Most people think that charity is just another word for love, but that is not exactly so. Charity has a different definition than love, especially in old dictionaries written at a time closer to when the English word came into use. Though the definition of love would include charity, charity is a specific aspect of love involving good will toward others. Charity is an attitude. It is giving from a completely willing heart, full of sincere brotherly love toward all others. Charity means actively loving others, really loving them from our hearts, and with our hands, and with our money and/or resources. Another word for charity, which is no longer used, but was used in the times of Jesus, was the word "alms." Alms means something given freely to the poor such as money or food. Charity is a heart with alms always in readiness. According to God's Word, to have charity is very important, because to not have it means pretty much that all I may do in life is worthless. We are plainly told in God's Word in the book of Colossians "And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness." So let's get busy and begin this very important study on charity! 68 pages.
Charting a Course in Your Youth	TEN3039	$	28.00
~A Serious Call to Examine Your Faith, Focus, and Finances~ Far more than a book on finances, Charting a Course will help youth establish a life plan that channels their time, talents, and resources into the Kingdom of God. Gary Miller addresses practical issues such as credit, advertising pressure, and our infatuation with electronic gadgets, offering down-to-earth, easy-to-follow guidance. And he does so within the framework of Jesus' call to seek first the Kingdom of God. This is not simply a guide to manage money frugally or how-to course in making money, but a continual call to look for ways to live as Jesus would, to carry out His intentions in our day. The stories and illustrations capture the reader's attention. Young people will find it engaging reading, and parents, church leaders, and teachers will be grateful for the opportunities this book offers to discuss financial issues with their youth. Gary Miller. 211 pages
Cheerfulness - Character Curriculum	K4019	$	12.40
We always enjoy being around cheerful people. When we are relaxing they make the time seem so enjoyable. When we are working they seem to make the time simply speed along. When we are troubled or afraid, we feel calmer around cheerful people. Even when the clouds are dark, cheerful people always seem to be walking in sunshine. If we like cheerful people (everyone does), and we like to be around cheerful people, we really should learn to be cheerful people. God wants His followers to be cheerful. What is the sense of having followers who follow with long, mopey faces and poor attitudes—followers who are always sad and depressed? Such people depress others as well. People who are cheerful not only please God, but they encourage those around them. A follower of Jesus brightens the days of others by kind words and deeds. A cheerful person is like a cool breath of fresh air on a hot day. As we study cheerfulness, we should consider that cheerful people have problems and heartaches too, but they have learned that we can actually live above our problems, and that it makes our lives much happier. Someone once calculated that it takes fourteen muscles to smile and eighty-seven to frown. No wonder grumpy people are so tired! They punish themselves. Frowning, pouting, and moping are all selfish activities, yet they damage us immensely more than they do others. Let's not punish ourselves! Let's learn to be cheerful. 68 pages.

Christian Character - Helping Young People Learn Habits that will Lead to Godly Character	PP05	$ 32.00
God commands a Christian to "put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof." Rom. 13:14 The character of Jesus Christ is to be bound to the life of each Christian, and the lusts of the flesh, which are in opposition to the character of Jesus Christ, are to be denied. To "put on" involves a life-filling, minute-by-minute application of the Word of God– through which strength of character is built. A young person must be busily engaged in putting into practice principles from God's Word by forming habits of behaviors– these habits leading to character development. CHRISTIAN CHARACTER is a book for boys and girls that provides an intensive examination of the character that should be found in the lives of Christian young people. CHRISTIAN CHARACTER is Scriptural, practical, and convicting; clearly examining the lives of young people who use the book, and then guiding them in setting short-term, specific goals. Lam. 3:40 CHRISTIAN CHARACTER is strongly supportive of the family and the local church. CHRISTIAN CHARACTER can be used by parents, home schools, Christian schools, churches, mission schools, and children's homes with young people between the ages of ten and fourteen. This text also provides an excellent guide for family devotions for younger children. This workbook contains twenty-eight chapters. 8½ x 11" with Comb binding. Gary Maldaner. 148 pages

Christian Conquests	K5837	$ 18.00
On a scale of 1 to 10, this book is a 20! Christian Conquests surely is one of the very best collections of Christian stories that we have read to date. These stories about sin, the daily, little sins that most people do not even acknowledge, are made plain and are convicting to the soul. Stories touch on hatred, fear, jealousy, unbelief, greed, dishonesty, selfishness, pride and more. And these sins are set in the home and family. How to conquer them is clearly presented. The collection includes stories for every age; children through adults will be blessed and challenged by them. If you can only buy one of A.L.O.E.'s books, make it this one. You will not be sorry! A.L.O.E. (Charlotte Maria Tucker). 213 pages.

Christian Leadership - Learning to be "An Example of the Believers" I Timothy 4:12	PP03	$ 32.00
All Christian young people are leaders and will continue to be leaders in some capacity for the rest of their lives. We need to train and encourage our children to become young men and young ladies who will lead by being "an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." 1 Tim. 4:12 Leaders are needed who will "fight the good fight of faith," who will be "zealous of good works," and who will be willing to give up all of their own desires so as to present their bodies "a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God." 1 Tim. 6:12 Titus 2:14 Rom. 12:1 Christian Leadership is a book for boys and girls that provides a clear examination of leadership qualities as commanded in 1 Timothy 4:12. In a practical way young people are taught how to be leaders through their words, their attitudes, their behaviors, and their willingness to live in submission to the will of God. It is the goal of Christian Leadership to help parents, teachers, or Sunday school workers to teach their children to become the kind of strong, Godly young people who could honestly say, "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." 1 Cor. 11:1 Christian Leadership contains twenty-two chapters, is 8½ by 11, 150 pages. A Teacher's Guide provides background information about each chapter, suggested discussions, learning objectives, suggested memory verses, teaching methods, answer keys to the exercises and questions at the end of each chapter, and other help for parents & teachers. Christian Leadership is recommended for ages 11-16, but could also be used as a family devotional guide for younger children. Topics: Christian Leadership, Leading in Willingness to Serve, Leading in Preparing for the Future, Leading in Pure, Sensible, and Honest Speech, Leading in Being Unselfish, Leading in Trusting the Lord, Leading in Speaking About the Lord, Leading in Setting Goals for the Future, Leading in Prayer, Leading During Transition, Leading in Submission to Authority, Leading in Humility, Leading in Exhorting Others, Leading in Promoting Godly Values, Leading in Self-Discipline, Leading in Being a Soul-Winner, Leading in Seeking God's Will for Today, Leading in Taking a Stand, Leading in Being a Godly Friend, Leading in Outward Appearance, Leading in Faithfulness, and Leading in Wisdom. Claremont Tales was one of A.L.O.E.'s most popular books for children. The Claremonts are a typical family; not perfect, but trying to love the Lord and keep Him first. There are twelve stories focusing on the important choice of life: will we live the Lord's way or our way? Stories deal with forgiveness, truth, persecution, poverty, obedience, getting along, and more. There is a lot to learn here. Be there as the Claremont children learn these lessons in real-life situations. Truly, this is one of A.L.O.E.'s best books. A.L.O.E. (Charlotte Maria Tucker). 200 pages.
Closer Look at the Evidence, A - Daily Devotional on the Incredible Existence of our Creator - KJV	BB37	$ 20.00
The primary purpose of this book is to help people understand what makes Christianity so trustworthy. Many books are available on the scientific evidence for creation, but most are difficult to share due to the technical nature of the subject matter. This book is written to be enjoyed as a daily devotional, but can also serve as an easy-to-read resource on the physical evidence that our Creator exists. God's desire is that the knowledge of what He has done through both the cross and creation is for everyone. We must not keep this knowledge to ourselves. The evidence that He is our Creator is so overwhelming and encouraging that it desperately needs to be shared in the world today. A Closer Look at the Evidence is designed to be an affordable resource to both reinforce our individual faith and facilitate sharing the reasons for this faith. Consider praying about how God could use you to utilize the truths found within these pages. Each page summarizes interesting facts about God and/or creation. The reader is encouraged to find more extensive and detailed information through the sources listed at the bottom of each page. KJV Edition. Richard & Tina Kleiss. 400 pages

Compassion - Character Curriculum	K4020	$	12.40
We like very much for people to show compassion to us. When we are hurting, we would like to be comforted. When we need help, we long for people to help us. When we are discouraged, we feel better when someone encourages us. However, should we always be on the receiving end of compassion? And should any Christian lack compassion? A compassionate person is always ready to offer help and encouragement for the difficulties of others. The opposite of compassion—seen in a person who always seeks help and encouragement—is actually selfishness. We really have either one or the other. The difference between the two can be found in Philippians 2:3-4 which says, ". . . let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others." That is what learning compassion is all about, learning to look on the difficulties of others rather than simply caring about our own things. God displayed His compassion by loving us. "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." —Romans 5:8. Lastly, Jesus lived His life compassionately for us, and then died out of compassion for us. Is there not room to add some compassion to our lives? 64 pages.
Concise King James Bible Dictionary	WOL02	$	10.00
A concise Bible dictionary designed to fit in a Bible case. It includes an extensive list of King James Bible words that have changed meaning since 1611, plus all of the doctrinal terms and much more. Not only does it define individual Bible words but also many of the phrases and descriptive statements that are no longer a part of contemporary English usage, such as "superfluity of naughtiness," "at your hand," "taken with the manner," and "in the gate." It is an excellent Bible dictionary for both new and older Christians. 90 pages.
Contemporary Christian Music: Some Questions Answered & Some Warnings Given	WOL37	$	18.00
This book begins with my own experience of living the rock & roll lifestyle before I was saved and of how the Lord dealt with me about music in the early months of my Christian life. A major section of the book expounds on four reasons WHY WE ARE OPPOSED TO CONTEMPORARY CHRISTIAN MUSIC AND THE CONTEMPORARY PRAISE MUSIC: It is worldly; it is ecumenical; it is Charismatic; and it weakens the fundamentalist stance of churches. We give examples of how this is occurring in formerly staunchly fundamentalist churches. Another major section of the book answers 27 QUESTIONS THAT ARE COMMONLY ASKED ON THIS SUBJECT. These are as follows: Should Christians only use old music? Isn't music neutral? Does a b flat note have a moral quality? Isn't the sincerity of the musicians the important thing? Isn't some of the contemporary Christian music acceptable? What about the miracles that some CCM artists witness? Why does traditional church music seem dull? Didn't Luther and the Wesleys use tavern music? Isn't the issue of music just a matter of taste? Doesn't the Bible encourage us to use cymbals and stringed and loud sounding instruments? Why are you opposed to drums? What is wrong with soft rock? If we assume that Christian music is demonic, why would the devil sing about Jesus Christ and the things of God? Didn't God create all music? Christians are not supposed to judge, are they? Love is more important than doctrine and standards of living, isn't it? Since God looks on the heart, why are you concerned about appearance? Isn't Christianity all about grace? Shouldn't we use rock music to reach the youth? Making rules and standards about music and clothing and such is pharisaical legalism, isn't it? Don't 1 Corinthians 6:12 and 10:23 teach that the Christian has liberty? Didn't Paul say that he was made all things to all men? David danced before the Lord, so why are you against dancing in the churches? Why do you say that the Pentecostal-Charismatic movement is unscriptural? By preaching against Christian rock aren't you hurting people and hindering their ministries? What about all of the young people who are being saved through CCM? The final sections contain TIPS FOR KEEPING CONTEMPORARY MUSIC OUT OF THE CHURCHES and SUGGESTED RESOURCES FOR SACRED MUSIC. David Cloud. 177 pages.
Contenders for the Faith - Handbook for Young Men 7 - 14	K2301	$	32.40
The Contenders for the Faith is a handbook for young men, ages 7 through 14, to equip them to become godly men and competent providers for their future families. Contentment - Character Curriculum	K4221	$	12.40
For most people contentment is an elusive quality for which they search and search, and many never find it. They think that, if they just had this or that, they would be content. Or if just this certain thing was different, or if they just lived in the country instead of the city, or if they had just a few friends, or if they could take a vacation once in a while, or . . . They often spend their resources—time and money—looking for the things or situations which will finally bring contentment to them. However long they search in this manner, contentment will evade them. Why is this so? Because contentment is not something you can buy or hold in your hand. It is not even something that you can seek. Situations do not bring contentment. Contentment is a state of mind. It is an attitude of the heart. It can be had in any situation. It is a spirit of being at peace with everyone and everything. That is a satisfied spirit. A satisfied spirit is content. In simple terms, contentment is being happy and satisfied with whatever we have, whatever our situation is, and whatever we are required to do. God created us and gave us life. Jesus gave His life to pay for our sins, and gives us eternal life in heaven. It is the least we can do to be content with the awesome blessings that He has earned for us and whatever He may ask us to do in obedience to Him. This is an important study! Do your best! 68 pages.

Courage - Character Curriculum	K5651	$	12.40
No one wants to be afraid; no one wants to be fearful, and yet mankind is very fearful! There are many "Fear nots" in God's Word. Our Father in heaven understands fear, and He wants to help us to have courage. There are many verses about courage in the Bible too. Without courage, we will do wrong; we will sin; we will yield to temptation; we will be weak; we will stumble; we will be ashamed of ourselves, and God will be ashamed of us too. With courage, we will do right; we will not sin; we will not yield to temptation; we will be strong; we will walk straight and true; we will have self-respect, and God will be pleased with us. Thus, "To have courage or not to have courage" is the great question for each of us. Our parents cannot give us courage. Our friends cannot give us courage. God does not give us courage, but God tells us "Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall Strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD." —Psalm 27:14. God will strengthen us to have the courage to do right. So, let us examine ourselves in the light of God's Word, and learn about courage, and how we can become more courageous. 65 pages.
Crawford, Dan - Biography	K5735	$	14.00
"If God sends rain, then rain's my choice". So spoke Dan Crawford, missionary to Africa. In the darkest jungles amidst the most violent nations, with death surrounding him at every turn, Dan Crawford's heart was fixed on his God. He was content in every situation, never complaining. He truly was one of God's choicest missionaries. Boys would do well to use Dan Crawford as a pattern for a strong, passionate, and godly man who followed in the steps of our Saviour. 83 pages

Crosby, Fanny - Biography	K5819	$	11.10
Fanny Crosby was a humble, little woman who was blind, and yet she "saw" spiritually so much more than many of us sighted followers of Christ. Fanny Crosby's testimony for Christ lives on because of her many inspirational hymns, which we still love and sing today. Fanny lived her life quietly, each day doing a little something for the Lord. The sum total of her "little somethings" added up to a life lived well for the Lord Jesus Christ. May we do as much! 48 pages.

Cyril Ashley	K6517	$	18.00
Cyril Ashley is a proud young man who self-righteously loves the Lord, and desires to go to the mission field, but does he truly want to go to serve the Lord and win the lost to Him? Or is he going because he cannot stand his home life and his brothers and sisters, and feels he is so much better than they are? Is the foreign mission an escape for him when his very own family needs Christ? He desires the foreign field, yet the home field needs him so much. Through the story of Jonah, God teaches Cyril many, many things. And this story will teach young people many valuable lessons on living the Christlike life at home, and not only teach young people, but people of all ages how to serve the Lord where they are. Darjeeling Disaster, The	WOL18	$	9.00
A challenging missionary story which took place at the turn of the 20th century. A missionary family in India lost six of their seven children in a landslide. The book is written by the godly mother, who recounts the event and its effect on their lives. They continued serving the Lord on the mission field and established an orphanage as a memorial to their deceased offspring. The children were serious about their walk with the Lord, and the quotations from their diaries are very stirring. This unique book is particularly challenging in the following areas: (1) The godly, Christ-centered family life; (2) the zeal of the children to follow God's will; (3) the family's careful separation from the world; (4) their sacrificial Christian service and perseverance in the work of Christ in the face of extreme trials; (5) their compassion for the lost. 108 pages.

Deeper Christian Life, The - Andrew Murray	BBM04	$	8.00
This book that delves into the most basic need of the Christian: Fellowship with God! In this book Andrew Murray points out some basic truth from the Word of God that reminds us that we, as Christians, are blessed by being counted a child of God, a son, an heir; and with this comes all the privileges afforded to such a one. Our inheritance is not to be found here in this physical world, but it can certainly be enjoyed here as we walk in fellowship with our Heavenly Father! Andrew Murray. 72 pages.

Determination - Character Curriculum	K4060	$	12.40
"But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank:" —Daniel 1:8. What a picture of determination! Daniel purposed in his heart to follow a course of action that would be neither easy nor well looked upon by his earthly masters. He was, after all, a captive and slave with not many choices remaining in his life. He decided that God would not be pleased if he partook of the king's meat and drink. He then determined to follow through upon that conviction to the end. Once he decided on keeping himself pure from the king's meat and drink, he held to it without wavering with a faith that God would carry him through. There are other passages in the Bible where Daniel exhibited determination, including continuing to pray in his open window when the consequence was to be cast into a den of lions. If we seek to be used of God as Daniel was, we must have determination to follow God through persecution and dangers also. We must work at developing determination each and every day, or we will not have it when we need it. 68 pages.
Determine to Have a Christian Home - Booklet	CCP058-7	$	5.90
The Lord Jesus Christ is the Foundation and Head of the church, but we cannot have strong churches without strong families. If we turn the coin to the other side, we find that what strengthens the home is a good, Bible-believing church. The Bible says that the Christian home has several ingredients: peace, thankfulness, and wisdom. If the home does not have these ingredients than it is not a Christian home. These ingredients may seem simple, but they make a world of difference. Satan is real, and everywhere families are falling apart. I hope these thoughts from God's Word will strengthen you and your family as you determine to have a Christian home. Clarence Sexton. 26 pages

Diligence - Character Curriculum	K4021	$	12.40
A diligent person is someone who accomplishes promptly and properly each opportunity or task that presents itself. Whatever it takes to do a job or finish a task well—that is what a diligent person will do. He works hard. He pays attention to all the details. He always does the job completely and properly. He is never slack or lazy. It can always be depended upon that his responsibilities have been cared for in a timely fashion. We all like to have diligent people surround us because diligent people make this a better world in which to live. We are glad when Dad is diligent about going to work and providing a good home for us. We are delighted when Mom is diligent about making good meals and keeping our home nice for us. Diligence is what keeps many things in our lives going smoothly. Diligence is a trait to be sought. The diligent person generally prospers. He who is not generally does not. Proverbs 21:5 says, "The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want." Who doesn't like plenteousness? Who doesn't like to do well? Who wouldn't like to be known as someone upon whom others can depend? Are you a diligent person? Can others, especially Dad and Mom, depend upon you? If you are not diligent, consider what that means. Are you someone who cannot be trusted? Are you lazy? Are you often unhappy about what you are missing, only because you were not diligent? Your life does not have to be in such a state. You can be diligent! Diligence is an essential trait for a Christian to possess, especially regarding things pertaining to God. In fact, the Bible teaches us to "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." —Proverbs 4:23. We pray that you will be diligent about making this trait a part of your life. 68 pages.

Do You Know The Answer? - A Bible Quiz Book	RSP2378	$	10.00
A Bible quiz is a practical and enjoyable means to help children and youth learn Bible facts. This book may be used in the church, school, or home. A Bible quiz helps to pass time in an interesting and educational way when traveling or when spending rainy evenings at home. It can be an interesting pastime for the sick or convalescent. Choose from a variety of methods: (1) answer by turn, (2) see who can answer first, or (3) work in teams. Some categories have two parts. The first part consists of questions. In the second part, each question has five clues. If no one answers the first clue, continue with the next clues, one at a time. Each clue makes the answer more obvious. If no one has the answer by the fourth clue, give the fifth clue, a Bible reference that gives the answer. When the reference is given, seeing who can find the reference first may also be considered a speed drill for learning to turn quickly to references. The first one to find the reference will then read the verse. 143 pages.
Dozen of Them, A - Isabella Alden	K3362	$	12.00

A Dozen of Them is a delightful story about a young boy and his adventures with a dozen Bible verses. He and his older sister are orphans. She is not old enough to obtain work that will support both of them, so he goes to live with a family on a farm where he is to be a general help. His sister gets him to promise to pick from a list one Bible verse each month to live by for twelve months. And then the adventure begins. Isabella Alden. 64 pages.

Dressing for the Lord - Book - Also available on DVD WOL06 $ 16.00

To our knowledge, this is the most extensive study on the Christian's dress in print. There was a time, just a few years ago, when a message like the one contained in this book was heard from fundamentalist and independent Baptist pulpits across the world, but that is no longer the case. All too often, any kind of preaching about clothing has become an oddity, an embarrassment, or a type of "legalism." The resistance of the rock & roll culture to such preaching is so pervasive that many pastors have decided to ignore the matter of dress, thus the battle is lost simply because the ground is abandoned. Yet if ever there ever were a time when preachers need to warn their people about clothing issues, it is today. Modern society is drenched with indecency. A Vogue fashion show would make ancient Corinth blush. To lay a solid Bible foundation for modesty, we give a careful exegesis of about 25 key Bible passages from Genesis to 1 John, and from these Scriptures we develop Bible principles that can be applied to any nation or culture.

The chapter titles include "The Origin of Clothing," "Clothing Is a Language," "The Captains of the Fashion Industry," "Isn't This Basically the Man's Problem?" "Bible Guidelines for Clothing," "A Study on Biblical Modesty," "Worldliness and the Christian's Dress," "Pants and the Christian Woman," "Pushing the Edge on Dress Standards," "Questions Answered on the Issue of Christian Dress," "Testimonies from Christian Women on the Issue of Modest Dress," "Survey of Men on the Subject of Women's Dress," and "Sources for Ready-made Modest Clothing."

The section on "QUESTIONS ANSWERED" deals with 36 common challenges, such as "Since God looks on the heart, why be so concerned about appearance?" "Men are going to sin anyway, so what is the big deal?" "Shouldn't we just teach the Bible and let the Holy Spirit deal with this issue?" "I believe dress standards just produce pride and hypocrisy"; "As an older woman I don't think the modesty issue is very significant for me"; "God is the business of changing hearts, which is more important than dress"; "I am not personally convicted about dressing the way you describe"; "Should women only wear drab sack dresses?" "I wear pants because there are many things I can't do in a dress"; "In Bible times both men and women wore robes"; "I only wear feminine pants"; "Preachers that preach against pants are mean-spirited and just want to dictate"; "Wearing dresses is old-fashioned and we should not be weird"; "Those who preach against pants on women are legalistic"; "Some pants are more modest than some dresses"; "What about the issue of modesty in other cultures?" "What about tattoos and piercings?" "Isn't the sincerity of the heart the important thing?" David Cloud. 203 pages.

Driven Into Exile K6498 $ 16.00

This story has it all—drama and excitement, but with a purpose—standing for Christ, or denying Christ—giving all for Him, or keeping all for self—supportive wives, or rebellious wives—willing children, or disobedient children—faithful friends, or foolish friends. Who might you have been had you lived during the trying times of the Huguenots? This story just might help you to better know your own heart. Would you really decide for Christ—or against Him? What price would you be willing to pay? Excellent story. A.L.O.E. (Charlotte Maria Tucker). 178 pages.

Echoing and Re-echoing - Isabella Alden K4115 $ 18.00

Faye Huntington co-authored several books with Isabella Alden. Echoing and Re-Echoing seems to be entirely written by Faye, and what an excellent story she wrote! This story picks up on Alfred Reid, Abbe's brother. You first met Abbe and Alfred in Ester Ried. This is the earnest story of a pastor who deeply longs for a real heart change in his people. Each chapter opens with a Scripture, which the reader sees impressed upon hearts as the chapter unfolds. It is a story about sowing, growing, maturing, and finally harvesting real fruit for God. This excellent story will be a blessing to all who read it! KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 178 Pages.

Elena - Harvey Yoder TEN3006 $ 22.00

Elena, a young Christian girl, grew up in communist Romania and was forced to attend communist schools with their subsequent brainwashing. Ester Ried - Isabella Alden	K3374	$ 18.00
Ester Ried was originally published in 1870. It was one of Mrs. Alden's earliest books and became her most popular work. It is the story of a young woman (18) who claims to be a Christian, but shows a lack of love, patience, and concern for her younger siblings. The work load at home is heavy. She often complains, and is irritable most of the time. The story is about her spiritual awakening to the Lord, and what it means to be a servant with a sweet and willing spirit. After "awakening" she realizes what a different effect she might have had on her younger brothers and sisters had she acted like a real Christian. God expects certain behavior from those who claim His name. This is an excellent story and would be a great book for older sisters to read! KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 221 pages.
Ester Ried "Yet Speaking" - Isabella Alden	K4056	$ 20.00
This story begins with Flossie Roberts of Four Girls at Chautauqa, having been just married and moving to New York to begin her new life. This story excels in showing the reader how to really live and work for the Master, our Lord Jesus Christ! It shows the reader countless ways to reach some of the most seemingly unreachable people for Jesus. Also, Flossie is an excellent example of a soft, feminine woman with a gentle, but powerful, Christian walk. Best of all, this is a true story. Mrs. Alden assures the reader that there really was a Flossie Shipley (albeit her name could have been changed), and she really did accomplish these things in her early days of marriage. KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 257 pages.
Ester Ried's Namesake - Isabella Alden	K4243	$ 20.00
This wonderful story is about the struggles of a girl named Esther (named after Ester Ried). She came from truly godly missionaries, who were dirt poor but loved the Lord and counted everything in life as all joy in service to their King. But it was not so with Esther; she often found it difficult to be happy and content; she had a quick tongue that was hard to control; she often felt like she was a failure, and could not seem to attain the faith of her parents. It is a story of contrasts hearts who live and breathe Christ, and those who either struggle to do so, or may simply not be His. Your heart will be challenged as you read this! KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 250 pages.

Exact Truth, The - Isabella Alden	K3228	$ 12.00
The Exact Truth is about a young girl who has trouble with her tongue, which often gets her into trouble. Through keeping a journal and studying Scripture, she begins to learn about the ins and outs of telling the truth. If something is not the exact truth, is it really the truth at all? This story will definitely give the reader reason to consider such things. It also often exposes the subtle motives behind not telling the exact truth. This story will certainly encourage thinking, and perhaps cause us to examine ourselves to see if the words we speak are The Exact Truth! Old Reprint. Author: Isabella Alden (Pansy). 64 pages

Fathers - The Glory of Children - Booklet	CCP100-3	$ 5.90

Where does a nation find its glory? She finds it in her people. Where do her people find their glory? The Bible says that children find their glory in their fathers. Where do fathers find their glory? They must find their glory in God. When fathers do not glory in God, the children find no glory in their fathers. As a result, the nation finds no glory in her children. We are a nation with fewer and fewer people finding glory in God, and we can find no glory in our children. The Bible says that the glory of children is their fathers. This is a message to fathers. Every father should be a man who follows the Lord Jesus Christ. If you are a father, your heart should be stirred. You should say, "God helping me, I am going to be all I should be and can be for the Lord and for the good of my children." Dad, please consider what it could mean to your family if you loved the Lord like you should love Him, if you served Him as you should serve Him. Clarence Sexton. 20 pages

For Love Of The Bible - The Battle For The KJV and the Received Text From 1800 to Present	WOL46	$ 35.00

This book traces the history of the defense of the KJV and the Received Text from 1800 to present. The book includes hundreds of testimonies and biographies; sketches of churches, schools, and organizations that have defended the KJV; a digest of reviews and condensations of major books and articles written in defense of the KJV in the past 200 years; excerpts from rare books on this subject which are no longer available; a comprehensive overview of the varied arguments in favor of the KJV. For Love of the Bible also gives a history of the modern English versions, beginning with the English Revised of 1881. Also included is a history of textual criticism, revealing that most of the textual scholars from the 19th-century on were rationalists who denied the infallible inspiration of Scripture. The 46-page annotated bibliography is the most extensive in print on the subject, to our knowledge. A detailed index is also included. The author spent several thousand dollars researching the book and has written several hundred letters in this connection, communicating with men from around the world who stand for the KJV today.

Michael Maynard, author of A History of the Debate over 1 John 5:7,8, wrote: "For Love of the Bible is a masterpiece. It ought to be in every academic, public, and special library in the world." 4th edition, March 2006, 5X8, soft cover. David Cloud. 518 pages.

Forgiveness - Character Curriculum

K4423 $ 12.40

Forgiveness is one of the most important and desirable of character traits to possess. It is so important that Jesus mentioned it in the Lord's Prayer. "For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: but if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." —Matthew 6:14-15. On another occasion Jesus again mentioned it to his disciples. "And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses." —Mark 11:25-26. These verses are pretty plain. If we want our heavenly Father to forgive us our sins, it is essential that we forgive others. Sometimes we are angry when others harm us, or say mean things to us or about us. Sometimes we may not want to forgive, but Jesus says, "We must!" It is not an option, but a "must do." So, why not begin now to develop the spiritual habit of forgiveness? 68 pages.

Friend in Need, A

K5821 $ 12.00

This little volume is an eclectic, yet awesomely instructive, set of stories for a young person of any age, and, I might add for us adults also. A Friend in Need is a story about a young man who goes well out of his way to do that which he does not need to do for another—or does he? In truth, he may be doing only what God expects of His own. In any case, the young man perseveres in doing good, and, as we all know is true, God does notice, and repayment comes in one of those unlooked-for ways that God so often uses. The other stories are quite thought-provoking on subjects like the seriousness of ignoring or mocking at "little sins," the devastation that can be caused by "little disobediences," the worthlessness of our goodness, the mercy in God's affliction, the wages of putting one's self first, and the motives that destroy most of our good works. Enlightening. A.L.O.E. (Charlotte Maria Tucker). 72 pages.

Giant Killer, The

K5822 $ 16.00

Meet Giant Sloth, Giant Selfishness, Giant Untruth, Giant Hate, and Giant Pride. They are as wily and sneaky as they are huge and strong these giants within. Meet Fides, an honorable knight, whose job it is to slay these giants and others. He wishes to do so to please his King, with Whom he wishes to go soon to live. Fides is often easily tricked by these giants, as he often underestimates them and their power. He comes uncomfortably close to being destroyed by several. Only with the sword and shield given him by his King, and with the aid of his friend Conscience, does he narrowly gain the victory. The Giant-Killer is considered one of A.L.O.E.'s finest works, and she intended it to be a teaching device designed to be read in a family setting in which parents can explain and supplement discussion of its truths. It is allegorical in nature, and is a story within a story in which a mother uses to teach young people about the subtle, yet odious, sins of the heart. A.L.O.E. (Charlotte Maria Tucker). 135 pages

Glorious History of the King James Bible, The	WOLo5	$ 16.00

The King James Bible is not merely another translation. Its history is one of the most fascinating chapters of church history and reads almost like a novel. This book traces this glorious heritage, beginning with the Wycliffe Bible of the 14th century. Every English-speaking believer should know this history; yet, sadly, even in the staunchest Bible-believing churches it is rare to find someone who is informed about the great price that was paid to provide us with an excellent Bible in our own language. Chapters include the Wycliffe Bible (1380), the Tyndale New Testament (1526), the Coverdale Bible (1535), the Matthew's Bible (1537), the Great Bible (1539), the Geneva Bible (1557), the Bishops Bible (1568), and the King James Bible (1611). Under the section on the KJV we look at the spiritual and literary and scholarly climate of that day, the amazing translation process itself, the peerless translators, the nature of the translation, Tyndale's influence, and the KJV's worldwide influence.

We also answer the following questions: Was King James a homosexual? Hasn't the KJV been revised and updated in thousands of places? Could the KJV be revised again? Is the King James Bible inspired? Isn't the KJV too antiquated and difficult to read? The author has studied this history diligently. He has a massive private library of materials on this subject dating back to the 16th century and has researched the subject in many parts of the world, including England, Wales, the Netherlands, Germany, Switzerland, and Italy. Illustrated. David Cloud. 228 pages

Godliness is Great Gain - Character Building Collection	GT09	$ 10.00
--	-------------	-----------------

This is a collection of six tales each teaching an important lesson about living the Christian life. The stories cover the importance of being trustworthy, not judging from appearances only, showing kindness without expecting a reward, using our talent no matter how small for the Lord, the dangers of receiving an inheritance too young, and, lastly, the secret of happiness is in serving the Lord. This is a great book for boys and girls and will bless ages junior through adult. 83 pages.

Godly Stories for Christian Boys Volume 1	K6388	$ 14.00

This volume contains four stories, each teaching one of the harder lessons in life: trusting God when life is difficult, trusting God when others have accused you of wrong doing, trusting God when you are timid or fearful, and trusting God when others have lied about you. The lessons of forgiving and going on in life are needful lessons. Each young man who reads of the struggles that the boys in the stories faced will be strengthened and encouraged to keep doing right and trusting God to work things out. This is a must read! 101 pages.

Godly Stories for Christian Girls Volume 1	K6381	$ 14.00
---	--------------	-----------------

These are three heart-touching stories that will certainly enrich the lives of Christian girls. The first, Janet's Charge, is about a young girl who thinks she knows just a bit more than her grandmother. She sadly learns a painful mistake, and struggles with truthfulness concerning the event. The second, Poppy's Holiday, is a heartwarming story about a young girl who just isn't happy unless she is doing for others. Doing for others is a wonderful lesson for all to learn! Minnie's Missionary Pennies is a joy to read, and to see how our loving God works all things together for good. This collection will soon be a favorite of your girls. 102 pages.

Going on Eagerly - Preschool G-H-I Series	RSP10031	$	5.90
This is the first book in the new Preschool G-H-I Series that is being developed. This series will extend the present Preschool A-B-C Series. When completed, it will provide six more books to help build a good scholastic foundation for the preschool child. This new series uses a specific geographical region as a theme for each book, giving the added advantage of teaching geographical awareness by association, along with an awareness of God as the Creator. Building a good foundation for our children's education is important. But still more important is building a solid foundation for their spiritual welfare. These books are designed to help in preparing the child for a good education from a Scriptural perspective. However, it is still the parents' responsibility to guide the child in the way of truth. Going On Eagerly, with a polar theme, gives a basic introduction to the series. Exercises include using eight colors, working with four basic shapes, writing and counting with numbers 0 through 10, identifying sequence, drawing missing parts and simple pictures. 64 pages

Read Hebrews 11. Make up your own chapter names. Don't stop until you have named every chapter in the Bible. You will find this a most interesting and profitable means of Bible study. Feed on God's Word like the Patriarch Job, who said, "I have esteemed the words of His mouth more than my necessary food" (Job 23:12). This tract contains many special passages for special needs and Inspires love for the Bible! As the Tract is small in size you can easily keep it with your Bible!
The Bible contains : the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precept are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions are unchangeable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the travellers map, the pilgrims staff, the pilots compass, the soldiers sword, and the Christian's character. Here Paradise is restored, Heaven opened, and the gates of hell disclosed. CHRIST is its Grand Subject, our good its design, and the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given you in life, will be opened in the Judgement, and will be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labour, and condemns all who trifle with its holy contents. 2 Timothy 3:16
Good for Evil & Other Stories	K5798	$	13.00
This collection is written much after the example set by Jesus' parables. Throughout its pages, it tends in nearly every story to state a clear, easily understandable example of something physical, something understood by everyone. It then presents a parallel situation that occurs just as often in the spiritual realm, and the spiritual duty or dangers, which are much more important than any physical ones. It then shows how these weighty issues are so often ignored to great harm, when like physical issues, of even minor consequence, would not be. In some stories, it showcases how doing right spiritually, though it might not be expected, also profits the flesh. It is a thoughtful little treatise on walking in the flesh versus walking in the Spirit. 76 pages.
Grace Raymond - Girl's Heritage Series	GT06	$	8.50
This is a wonderful story of three sisters, and particularly Grace Raymond, a young girl with a strong temper who feels quite righteous in her own eyes. Under the careful tutelage of her Christian teacher, she is at last convinced of her sinful nature and her need to repent. After she truly comes to Christ, she learns to bring her temper to Him also. This is an excellent book to teach children what sin and repentance actually are. There are nuggets of wisdom tucked throughout the book. Grace's parents are not believers, and so, the story also teaches how to live in a godly manner within a non-Christian home. 71 pages.

Healthy Choices Cookbook CP126 $ 26.00

No sugar. No white flour. No artificial anything.

The cookbook for people who want wholesome, nutritious food, from the kitchens of Keepers at Home readers.

Are you looking for a common sense approach to a healthier lifestyle? We, with contributions from the Keepers at Home readers, compiled Healthy Choices Cookbook to help you provide nutritious food for your family and friends. The recipes in Healthy Choices are sugar-free, use no white flour and don't ask for artificial ingredients. In the long run, no one maintains vibrant, growing health on radiated, fumigated, pasteurized, homogenized, chemical-laden, and nutritionally dead food. Living cells require living foods.

While its sometimes hard to decide the exact place where dead food stops and healthful food starts, and certain foods "don't agree" with some people as they do with others, Healthy Choices with its 1,093 recipes offers a wide range of traditional and modern recipes that help you protect, maintain and encourage the good health God gives you and your loved ones. Take the first step toward better health—start with healthy food choices.

Hedge Fence, A K3283 $ 11.10

A Hedge Fence is an outstanding book for children. Frank, the boy in the story, has been wishing he had a hedge to keep him from doing wrong. An older friend begins sending Scripture verses to Frank each month as a "hedge fence" against temptations of sin. Frank, at first, cannot see how the verses could help him, but he quickly learns that Scripture is a very ready help in time of need. Frank also has a wonderful relationship with his father and mother, which would bring joy to the heart of any parent. Although this book is written for children, teens and adults will be blessed by reading about these wonderful hedges. They just might prove helpful to many of us too! 51 pages.

Her Mother's Bible - Isabella Alden	K2191	$ 13.00
This is one of Mrs. Alden's finest works. It is the story of a grandmother's Bible handed down to her daughter, whose young son reads a portion of it each night. He finds verses which have been highlighted by his grandmother, and ponders what they mean. He takes a verse for a day or sometimes a week, and God, ever so faithfully, teaches this young boy what the verse means, and how it should be applied in his daily life. This would make an excellent family read-aloud, but would be perfect for any young boy! Isabella Alden. 77 pages.
Heroes of Faith on Pioneer Trails	BB31	$ 16.00
Short biographical challenging look at 10 missionaries lives. Dr. Eugene Myers Harrison lived a life dedicated to the propagation of the gospel to the ends of the earth, having spent time as a missionary to the people of Burma. As a distinguished scholar, teacher, pastor and crusader for evangelical Christian missions, Dr. Harrison has handled the stories of the selected missionaries with great insight, providing unique understanding and the central ideal and Scriptural text which governed each of these choice servants of Christ. Be challenged and encouraged in your own service to the LORD as you follow the lives of David Brainerd, William Carey, Henry Martyn, Robert Morrison, Adoniram Judson, John Williams, Robert Moffat, David Livingstone, Hudson Taylor and John G. Paton. Dr. Harrison uses a favourite text of Scripture for each missionary as the central theme of their lives, their calling and ministry. There are many biographies and accounts already in print which go into greater detail in dealing with the lives of each of these great men, but none which will bring out the very heart of each of them in such clarity and feeling in such a short account. You will feel as though you have glimpsed their very hearts in just a short period of time. Don't think of this work as duplication of facts already known, but rather an extension of their stories as seen through the spiritual insight of Dr. Harrison. After reading the accounts of the trials and tribulations of these men and how they faced it with their faith in their God and His promises, you just may be challenged to follow in their footsteps and see your own faith increased. Eugene Myers Harrison. 196 pages

Home Schooling With a Meek and Quiet Spirit - Book	T21120	$ 14.50
A desire of a homeschooling mother's heart is to have a meek and quiet spirit instead of discouragement, fear, and anger. She can cope with the myriad of daily difficulties and decisions that a homeschooling lifestyle brings with it, as long as she is having the right responses to them. Let her be fearful, worried, anxious, frustrated, irritated, or angry and a mum soon realizes she is undermining all she wants to accomplish by homeschooling. Because Teri Maxwell, a mother of eight, has walked the homeschooling path since 1985, she knows first-hand the struggle for a meek and quiet spirit. The memories from her early homeschooling years of often being worried and angry rather than having a meek and quiet spirit are not what she would like them to be. Author: Teri Maxwell. 123 pages. Workshop CD and Study Guide available also.

Honesty - Character Curriculum	K6382	$ 12.40

When asked what "honesty" means, many people would reply that it means "truthfulness." While it is true that truthfulness is a very large part of honesty, and that the two are very similar, they do have some differences. Truthfulness is an issue whenever we speak to another. Honesty, however, is involved in everything that we do, whether alone or with others. A person can be truthful in his speech, and yet hide certain things. These things, if known by others, might make a difference in how the person is trusted. Hiding things would not be truly honest. When people decide to trust us, they must be given all the details that might affect their decision. A person's level of honesty becomes a part of that person's reputation. "Provide things honest in the sight of all men." Men cannot see all that we do, but they watch the result of our actions more closely than we think. God's wants us to be honest! 68 pages.

House Church Movement, The	WOL50	$ 18.00
This book examines all aspects of the house church movement, including Frank Viola's Organic Church and the Integrated Church. It is also called simple church, open church, integrated church, micro church, and organic church. There is nothing unscriptural about a church that simply meets in a house, but the house church movement is not merely about churches meeting in houses. We document a three-fold agenda of a large segment of the house church movement: (1) An agenda to remove Christians from pastoral protection, (2) an agenda to create the one-world church, (3) an agenda to build the kingdom of God. Many of the house churches are associated with the leaders of the charismatic latter rain apostolic revival movement. They expect the return of Christ to be preceded by a miracle-driven revival that will surpass even that of the first century. This is called dominionist or kingdom now theology. Chapter titles include "The Many Faces of the House Church Movement," "Motivations for the House Church Movement," "The Challenge of the House Church Movement," "The Agenda of the House Church Movement," "The Heretical Jungle of the House Church Movement," "Scripture Misused by the House Church Movement," "The Legalism of the House Church Movement," "Frank Viola and the Organic Church," "The Integrated Church and Vision Forum." The book looks at the house church movement both in regard to its dangers as well as its challenges. 286 pages.

How To Have A Real Relationship With God - For the Love of the Family - Terry Coomer	TC06	$ 5.00
Pastor Terry Coomer takes us step by step on how to have a real, intimate, personal, and passionate relationship with God. Many Christians are living their life in unrighteousness or self righteousness (self power) rather than righteousness and do not understand why they are unhappy, defeated, and discouraged. In fact, many are literally crying, devastated and destroyed. They fail to see how the devil works in their life and the devastating affect this has on their marriage, home, relationships, and children. This is a must read to understand why many Christians fail and the disasters that take place within their lives. How To Have A Real Relationship With God will give you principles that will change your life. Booklet. Terry Coomer. 20 pages
How to Live The Victorious Christian Life	BB04	$ 10.00
In our frail human flesh we are powerless against the onslaught of Satan and his darts, and are unworthy to call ourselves children of God. However, in Christ, our All-sufficient Saviour, we are found both worthy and victorious. I Have A Soul - Girl's Heritage Series GT03 $ 10.00

This is a collection of six stories designed to impress upon children how important it is to obey their parents, to strive to keep God's commandments, and to be ever mindful of their eternity. The stories include the true account of two men trapped at sea in a dense fog, the unpleasant results of a disobedient boy, the practical lessons to be learned from God's creation, and the touching stories of children who were prepared to meet death, though it came at an early age. Some consider thoughts of death too sad and depressing, yet Christians from years past seemed to have been more concerned about preparedness. This book will make one think much more seriously about eternity. American Tract Society. 76 pages.

In Search of Home - Harvey Yoder TEN3017 $ 24.00

No one had ever understood Zumrat. Not even her own mother. Now her marriage was failing and her heart was in turmoil. To make matters worse, her friend was trying to convince her that the answer to her problems could be found only in the Christian God, Jesus.

But Zumrat was a Muslim. If she accepted this Christian God, her family would disown her. Her husband would despise her. She might even be killed as an infidel. Besides, how could a man who had lived some 2,000 years ago help her, here and now?

Still... what if this Christian God could give her the peace she longed for?

Follow the true story of one Muslim family's miraculous conversion, perseverance under persecution, and arduous journey in search of a place to call home. Harvey Yoder. 235 Pages.

A Doctrinal Study of the Biblical Foundations of the Modern Charismatic Movement

Why another book about the Charismatic movement? With the phenomenal growth of this movement in the 20th century, there has been a distinct lack of material that actually searches the scriptures on this topic. Most books, both for and against Charismaticism, begin with their arguments and then appeal to the Bible for support.

In Spirit and In Truth is a workbook that examines over 800 relevant scriptures regarding virtually every aspect of the modern Charismatic movement, in a simple, easy-to-read and study format. Comment by the author is kept to a minimum while the reader is required to look up the scriptures to see what God actually says. The workbook-style format makes it impossible to simply brush over cross-references. The result is a thorough, doctrinal investigation of this topic that will be a blessing to you, regardless of where you currently stand on this issue.

Chapter Topics Include: Preparation for Bible Study, Biblical Salvation, What Happened to You at Salvation?, The Ministry of the Holy Spirit - A & B, Signs, Miracles and Wonders, The Gifts of the Holy Spirit, The Gift of Tongues, The Gifts of Miracles and of Casting Out Devils, The Gifts of Healing, The Ecumenical Movement and The Issue of Authority. In The Beginning... Soup? - Booklet CK1016 $ 1.00

Did life REALLY arise from the primordial soup? Have you been lied to? You were probably taught that life began in the "soup" of the early oceans. Is that really true? Or do teachers cling to this theory by faith because they reject the concept of a Creator? This powerful little booklet presents the unbiased scientific evidence you need to answer this question, proving that we are the product of a Creator, not a chemical accident.

In The Footsteps of Bible Translators WOL19 $ 9.00

This book follows in the exciting footsteps of Bible writers and translators across Great Britain and Europe. It is the result of firsthand research into the history of ancient Bibles such as the Waldensian, the Wycliffe, the Tyndale, and the King James. Look over the author's shoulder as he examines this history at Trinity College, Dublin, and Cambridge University Library to view two of the seven surviving copies of the ancient Waldensian New Testament; Lollard's Tower, where Bible-believing Christians were imprisoned; Lutterworth, where John Wycliffe translated the first English Bible and where his bones were dug up and burned after his death; Little Sodbury Manor, where William Tyndale lived; Fulham Palace, where Tyndale tried unsuccessfully to get permission from ecclesiastical authorities to translate the English Bible; St. Dunstan's in the West, where Tyndale preached before he went overseas; St. Paul's Cross, where Bibles were burned in England; Smithfield, where Bible believers were burned in England; St. Magnus the Martyr Church, where translator Miles Coverdale is buried; Hampton Court Palace, where King James I approved the translation of a new English Bible; the Jerusalem Chamber at Westminster Abbey, where portions of the King James Bible were translated;

Oxford and Cambridge Universities, where other portions of the King James Bible were translated and where many memorials to the translators can be found; the British Library, where one can see copies of ancient Bibles such as the Lindisfarne Gospels, which is the earliest extant portion of Scripture in the English language, a handwritten Wycliffe Bible, one of only three existing original Tyndale New Testaments, and the Sinaiticus Greek Codex; Southwark Cathedral, where KJV translator Lancelot Andrewes is buried; Guildford, where KJV translator George Abbot is buried; Islip, where KJV translator John Aglionby is buried; St. Peter's Kirk in Leiden, the Netherlands, where the Pilgrims worshipped before debarking for America; Bible Museum in Amsterdam, where ancient European Bibles and artifacts pertaining to the history of the Bible are housed; Vilvoorde, Belgium, where William Tyndale was martyred; Erasmus Museum, Brussels, where Erasmus worked on the third edition of his Greek New Testament; The Gutenberg Museum in Mainz, German, which houses many copies of the ancient Gutenberg Bible as well as fascinating displays pertaining to the history of writing and printing;

Crime Museum, Rothenburg, Germany, with its massive collection of artifacts about law and crime in Europe dating back to the 12th century, including instruments of torture that were used by Rome; Zurich, where Zwingli led in the Protestant Reformation and where Baptists were drowned by the Protestants; Piedmont, Italy, where the Waldensians held the New Testament faith in their mountain strongholds and suffered greatly for resisting Rome's authority; and Rome, where portions of the New Testament were written and where the false "church" attempted to keep the Bible out of the hands of the common people. This is history that every child of God will appreciate. Illustrated with 94 pictures taken on location of the places described above. 139 pages.

Into Their Hands at Any Cost - Harvey Yoder	TEN3023	$	24.00

Into Their Hands tells the stories of Bible smugglers and their ingenious ways to transport Bibles into Romania and the former Soviet Union. The book traces the eastward journey of Bibles until they are delivered into the hands of eager Christians, anxious to claim God's Word.

From Chapter 1

...There was the camping stove, streaked with smoke. The cooking utensils, the coffee pot, and the box with their food were all inspected. Then the official went to the side door.

One part of Irene did not want to watch, yet she could not keep her eyes away as the officer reached for the boxes under the mattress. Oh, no, was that a box of Bibles? Would they be turned back? Would the officer get angry at them for trying to take Bibles into Romania? Could he read Russian and know they were destined for the Soviet Union? Like startled sparrows, Irene's thoughts dashed through her mind.

The official tugged the top of the box open, revealing nothing but clothes inside! Irene almost gasped. She was certain they had put Bibles into that box. What was happening?

The officer skipped the next box and reached for the third in line. By this time her head was spinning. If the first was clothes, and she had thought that one had Bibles, then what was in this one? It would have to have Bibles, right?...

Frederick the Great once asked his chaplain if he could explain in only one word how he knew the Bible and his religion were true. The chaplain thought for a minute and answered "Israel." The great king could not refute him because the nation of Israel - and the land that bears their name - does provide ironclad evidence that the Bible is true.

It is vitally important, therefore, that we keep our eye on this all important piece of land and these people that God has set apart for Himself.

This package covers all of the major facets pertaining to Israel in a professional, technologically cutting edge way: geography, culture, archaeology, history, current events, and prophecy.

The material is based on 37 years of intensive Bible study plus firsthand research in Israel and in major museums in other parts of the world.

The material answers the following questions:

What evidence do we have that the Bible is true? Does archaeology support the Bible? Do the Dead Sea Scrolls have any significance to the Bible believer? How does the current state of Israel fit into Bible prophecy? How should Bible-believing Christians act toward Israel today? What motivated U.S. President Harry Truman to recognize Israel in 1948? How does the Church of the Holy Sepulcher fulfill Bible prophecy? How has Israel won five major wars against great odds? What preparations are being made for building the Third Jewish Temple? How will the Third Temple be built on a place currently occupied by Islamic mosques? Will Israel be driven into the sea as the Muslims have vowed? Why does Israel bow so often to international pressure? Why are her leaders willing to give up her most holy Temple Mount? What type of Messiah is Israel looking for? When will the Rapture occur? What is Daniel's Seventieth Week? What will the Antichrist be look and what will happen during his reign? What will happen to the Muslim nations when Jesus returns? What is the Battle of Armageddon? When will the Battle of Gog and Magog occur? What will the world be like when Jesus reigns?

Journibles : 17:18 Series - Hardback and Paperback

These nice, durably bound volumes (and paperback) are great for reflecting on selected Books of the Bible, and will allow you to leave a legacy for your children and generations to come.

Why the 17:18 series? In Deuteronomy 17, Moses is leaving final instructions concerning the future of Israel. As a prophet of God, Moses foretells of when Israel will place a king over the nation (v. 14). In verse 18, the king is commanded to not simply acquire a copy of the law (the entire book of Deuteronomy) from the "scroll publishinghouse," but to hand write his own copy of the law. Thirty-four hundred years later, educators are "discovering" that students that physically write out their notes by hand have a much greater retention rate than simply hearing or visually reading the information. Apparently, God knew this to be true of the kings of Israel also. From such understanding came the conception of this series of books.

How to Use These Books: Each book is organized so that you can write out your very own copy of Scripture. You will be writing the Bible text only on the right hand page of the book. This should make for easier writing and also allows ample space on the left page to write your own notes and comments. From time to time a question or word will be lightly printed on the left page; these questions are to aid in further study, but should not interfere with your own notes and comments.

Judge Not - Is it Legalism to Judge Sin and Error?	WOL38	$ 10.00
This book is a reply to 21 of the most common charges that are brought against a fundamentalist Bible approach to Christianity. These are the challenges that every fundamentalist Bible-believing Christian must learn to deal with, because there is no part of the world so remote that the believers there will not be confronted with this thinking. This very practical material would make a good series of study for Sunday Schools at the Junior High level or above or for Youth meetings or Bible Institutes. The sections of the book are as follows: The Bible Says We Should Not Judge; Love is Nonjudgmental and Tolerant; Being Strict about Biblical Issues is Legalism; Fundamentalists Are Pharisees; Jesus Told Us Not to Forbid Others; Why Don't You Follow Matthew 18? We Should Heed Gamaliel's Advice; We Should Leave the Tares until the Harvest; We Should Not Touch the Lord's Anointed; If We Don't Stand Together We Will Hang Separately; The Christian Army Shoots Its Own Wounded; God Does Not Look on the External Appearance; We Will Be in Heaven Together; The Christian Life Should Be Liberty and Fun; We Should Be All Things to All Men; Denominational Divisions Should Be Erased; It is Not Possible to Know That Your Doctrine Is Right; Loving Jesus Is All that Is Important; Fundamentalism Is a Belief in the Five Fundamentals; We Should Limit Our Message to Broaden Our Fellowship; We Should Be Balanced. Judson, Ann & Ramabai, Pandita - Biography	K4216	$ 16.00
~ Ann Judson left family, home, and prosperity to follow her husband and the Lord Jesus Christ to bring the gospel to the far-off land of Burma. She did this in a time when travel was difficult, there were no furloughs or retirement, and little or no support. She was a woman of great courage whose walk with the Lord will perhaps inspire others to follow the Lord as well. E. R. Pitman. ~ This is the incredible story of Pandita Ramabai , a woman from India, and how she came to the Lord in a nearly impossible situation in a pagan country. India was an appalling country for women, and the situation was much worse for widows and young girls. Pandita Ramabai not only found the Lord, but also became a tool in His Hand to bring hundreds to Him for salvation. There is much for all of us to learn from her life. One quote was: "I wish them (the unconverted) to see the contrast in every thing where love rules." What a motto for all believers to practice! We pray you shall be blessed by reading her biography. Jennie Chappell. 146 pages.
Julia Ried - Isabella Alden	K3381	$ 20.00
Here we meet Julia Ried and Dr. Douglas of Ester Ried. Due to their mother's poor health, the family home has broken up, and Julia has become self-supporting against her mother's advice. Her new friend, the mistress of her boarding house, a "professing" Christian, easily overwhelms the impressionable young girl and gradually starts drawing her away from her more conservative upbringing. As Dr. Douglas tries to point out what is taking place, she becomes prideful and resentful, and plunges further in the opposite direction. She wastes valuable opportunities to help others and be a testimony for the Lord. At last, after a tragedy, she comes back to the Lord, recommits her life, and begins to attempt to undo some of the damage she has done. The great value of this book is in showing how foolish young people are when they do not listen to those who are older and wiser, and also makes one aware that not everyone who professes to be a Christian is a friend. KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 241 pages.

Keeping our Children's Hearts - Our Vital Priority	T21140	$ 24.50
"The most complete and most balanced book I have read on how to raise children who won't rebel!" Dr. S. M. Davis Written for parents of young children to teenagers, this book shares the joys and outcomes of our vital priority--keeping our children's hearts. Rebellion and immorality are common among teens even within the Christian community. Does Scripture offer any path of hope for more than this for our children? What can parents do to direct their children toward godliness rather than worldliness? When does this process begin? What is the cost? Steve and Teri Maxwell believe the key factors in raising children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4) are whether or not the parents have their children's hearts and what they are doing with those hearts. Keeping Our Children's Hearts offers direction and encouragement on this critically important topic. Included in this book is a chapter co-authored by the three adult Maxwell children concerning their thoughts, feelings, experiences, and outcomes of growing up in a home where their parents wanted to keep their hearts. There are also questions at the end of each chapter, which are thought provoking and helpful. Steve & Teri Maxwell. 268 pages
Keeping the Kids - How to Keep our Children from Falling Prey to the World	WOL07	$ 35.00
This book aims to help parents and churches raise children to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to avoid the pitfalls of the world, the flesh, and the devil. Statistics show that a frightening percentage of children that grow up in Bible-believing churches drop out when they reach adolescence. They either go full-fledged into the world, or they remain on the periphery of church life, or they join a contemporary church that essentially promises them they can have Christ and the world, too. We are convinced that this does not have to happen, because God has given promises in His Word about child training, but winning the battle is not easy and requires complete dedication by the parents. The book is a collaborative effort. It contains testimonies from hundreds of individuals who provided feedback to our questionnaires on this subject, as well as powerful ideas gleaned from interviews with pastors, missionaries, and church people who have raised godly children. The book is packed with practical suggestions and deals with an extensive number of issues: Conversion, the husband -wife relationship, the necessity of permeating the home with Christian love, mothers as keepers at home, the father's essential role as the spiritual head of the home, child discipline, separation from the pop culture, discipleship of youth, the grandparents' role in "keeping the kids," effectual prayer, and fasting. The book warns about the destructive power of hypocrisy, neglect, bitterness, carnal criticism, anger, and of fathers provoking their children to wrath. It describes how parents can win and keep the children's hearts. It shows how to have family devotions and how parents can train their children to have a daily Bible reading time. It emphasizes the importance of raising children in a sound church and lists the characteristics of such a church. It is not enough to tell children what to do; they must be taught to apply God's Word to their daily lives, and toward this end the book provides many powerful Bible lessons on practical Christian living, such as biblical principles for testing entertainment, principles for television and movie viewing, principles for judging clothing fashions, for making wise decisions, and for knowing God's will. The book contains pointers for winning children that are already rebellious. There is an extensive list of recommended resources. David Cloud. 531 pages.

"Oh! if we could make this missionary problem a personal one" is the one thought that Andrew Murray has as he writes this book in response to the Missionary Conference held in New York, April 1900. His theme verse is "The love of Christ constraineth us". The thought is "Oh! if we could make this missionary problem a personal one, if we could fill the hearts of the people with a personal love for the Saviour who died for them, the indifference of Christendom would disappear, and the kingdom of Christ would appear." Kindness - Character Curriculum	K4073	$ 12.40

This world would certainly be a dreary place without the kindness of God and kindness of others. The kindness of God toward mankind is shown in countless ways. We have only to look at His handiwork in creation. He has provided for our every need: fresh air to breathe, water to sustain us, food to satisfy our hunger, sunshine to keep us warm, and so much more. The greatest kindness of God was in allowing Jesus to become the Lamb, to be the perfect sacrifice for our sins. Mankind received the gift of redemption through the blood that Jesus shed in His kindness toward us. Without this sacrifice we could not go to heaven. We could never have the opportunity to live with Jesus forever. By now you might have noticed that God has showed His kindness toward man by a great many acts. You see that kindness is not thinking nice thoughts about a person. It is doing nice things for a person. Kindness takes thought, but it does not become kindness until action follows that thought. We are not kind when we feel kindly. We must be kind. Let's pray that as we have a wonderfully kind God and a kind Saviour, we will, in their likeness, learn to be kind also. 64 pages.

Kingdom Focused Finances for the Family - A Call to Biblical Stewardship in Everyday Life TEN3028 $ 28.00

Kingdom-Focused Finances for the Family is easy to understand and enjoyable to read; it is Kingdom teaching for a Kingdom-focused people. Author Gary Miller disassembles our view of finances and carefully puts it all back together in a way that makes sense. With its common sense approach to personal finances and an emphasis on glorifying God, this book is realistic, humorous, and serious about helping us become stewards instead of owners. An excerpt from Kingdom-Focused Finances: "I began to view the small items in a store in a new way. A bag of potato chips at $1 may not seem too expensive. Surely I can afford a bag of chips! But when I realize buying those chips every day can cost me several hundred dollars a year, a bag of chips begins to look amazingly overpriced. Suddenly some of my habitual purchases became less attractive, and I began to realize the price displayed in the store was not the true cost of the item. I wonder how truth in advertising would affect some businesses today. How well would Starbucks sell their mocha latte if the sign said, Have one each day on the way to work and it will cost you only $1,123 a year?" A great book with very practical advise which is not often spoken about. Gary Miller. 240 pages. - Also available for Young People - Charting a Course in Your Youth

King's Daughter, and Other Stories for Girls GT53 $ 13.90

This book contains over forty stories and one hundred illustrations from the turn of the century. Every story contains an important lesson designed to build character. These are wonderful stories to be read out loud at family time, or in a group, or just to have in your library. The book is excellent. Author: JE White. 224 pages

King's Daughter, The - Isabella Alden K3388 $ 18.00

This story deals with a subject we do not often hear about in our generation—temperance. Mrs. Alden skillfully answers every argument that people, especially professing Christians, use to defend their positions on this subject. As there is nothing new under the sun, the same types of arguments are used today to support every other kind of worldliness, and the answers are as pertinent to these issues as well. On a more personal level, this story will present a model of love and servanthood from a daughter to her father. Perhaps if we would work as diligently in our own fields of harvest, we would reap more fruit. Also, the great scriptural truth that, "His ways are not as our ways," is made plain in the circumstances of their lives and may encourage all who read this book to take hope that God is in control and working even when we may not see it. KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 199 pages.

Knights Maidens and Dragons - Booklet - CD available also TF1039 $ 7.00

This is additional material to the Knights Maidens & Dragons message on CD and DVD. This booklet addresses the subject from a different direction. The Knights Maidens and Dragons message is a list of 7 safeguards in the area of courtship. But some young people seem uninterested or blind to those safeguards. They need a stronger warning about danger and they need to survey more thoroughly some concepts surrounding marriage, love, and relationships. Then there are other young people who have already made many mistakes and who are looking for hope and healing. This supplement addresses these two needs. Harold Mally. 52 pages.

Knowledge of the Holy, The - A.W. Tozer D7310 $ 14.00

What is the nature of God? How can we recapture a real sense of God's majesty and truly live in the Spirit. Tozer's The Knowledge of the Holy, a modern classic of Christian testimony and devotion, addresses these and other vital questions, showing us how we can rejuvenate our prayer life, meditate more reverently, understand God more deeply, and experience God's presence in our daily lives. Informative and inspiring, The Knowledge of the Holy illuminates God's attributes---from wisdom, to grace, to mercy---and shows through prayerful and insightful discussion, how we can more fully recognize and appreciate each of these divine aspects. This book will be treasured by anyone committed to the Christian faith. It bears eloquent witness to God's majesty and shows us new ways to experience and understand the wonder and power of God's spirit in our daily lives. A.W. Tozer. 120 pages

Lake of the Woods - A.L.O.E. K6494 $ 18.00

Lake of the Woods is nestled deep in the northern wilderness in Rupert's Land (Canada). This is the fascinating story of an English brother and sister left to fend for themselves in this wilderness. They had learned the faith of their father, but upon his decease, they must learn to live this faith. They found much opportunity to take Romans 12 for their guide during the next year. They will face danger, fear, unjust treatment, and more! This is an exciting story which strengthens the faith of the reader while it teaches so many excellent truths. You won't want to miss this one. A.L.O.E. (Charlotte Maria Tucker). 220 pages.

Learning From Dad - Folder, includes CD - CD also available separately TF1020 $ 35.00

This is NOT a home school curriculum. This is a notebook to help EVERY dad to lead and train his family. Men use tools. This notebook is a tool for family training. Just as pastors and elders and teachers equip the church, so fathers must equip their families. Dads don't have much time to teach but every dad must spend some time teaching. Therefore, since time is limited, dads should teach the most important things – Biblical concepts of life which become building blocks of convictions and family commitments. The Learning From Dad Notebook is simple but comprehensive. It is brief but doesn't compromise depth. It is concise but includes many useful ideas and thought provokers as it focuses on concepts and the Christian life.

Learning My Numbers - A Little Jewel Book RSP2800 $ 5.90

Least Said Soonest Mended - Agnes Giberne K3550 $ 18.00

What a title! What a story! Some of the advice given by the wise mother to her daughter who loved to talk is: ". . . the main part of the good and evil that we do in our lives is done with the tongue." "Mind you, it's "least said, soonest mended," in the long run." "What's said can never be unsaid." The dangers of too much talk are clearly pointed out, and the dire consequences which follow such talk are clearly shown in the lives of the characters, in particular, the main character, a sweet girl named Kitty. Idle words, passing compliments, and sometimes too much admiration and praise spoken by others may also be a source of trouble in a young person's life as it was in this story. "Least said, soonest mended" is a profound phrase you will not want to forget! We made a plaque to hang up as a constant reminder to say less rather than more. Great story! Great lessons! 193 pages.

Lessons in Practical Christianity - For Children - Volume 1 K6527 $ 14.50

In Practical Christianity, Lessons for Young People, you will find that all the lessons pertain to a young person's daily walk. It contains twenty lessons to teach children. After all, Jesus brought us eternal life that we might live it. He talked and walked without sin; He obeyed God in all things, and His love was perfect toward God and man. He came as a servant and lived a perfect life. The apostle Peter, in his epistle, admonished us to walk in His steps. "For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps." —1 Peter 2:21.

These lessons are designed to help Christian young people follow the Lord's example in all that they think, speak, or do. In each lesson there are one or more Scriptures, a short story followed by pertinent questions to make a practical application, and a conclusion to help point them to a more Christlike life in their own lives. We pray that these lessons will encourage them to ever follow the Lord more closely.

Life And Works Of Spurgeon	BBS01	$	34.00
-----------------------------------	--------------	-----------	--------------

C. H. SPURGEON was the most well known and heard preacher in London by the time he was twenty-one. Although he had no formal theological training, he still arose to great heights of success in the service of his LORD. Spurgeon spoke to thousands each Sunday in the Metropolitan Tabernacle, in his own brand and style of preaching, as well as founding churches, Sunday schools, orphanages and a Pastor's College. In his literary accomplishments he edited a monthly church magazine and was a great supporter and promoter of literature distribution. This volume has endeavoured to portray the life and works of C.H. Spurgeon, beginning with an interesting narrative of his life, choice selections from his sermons and lectures and a large collection of extracts from his most famous writings. Life of John Newton - ASSU - Hardback	D516201	$	30.00
--	----------------	-----------	--------------

What about the life of an 18th century human trafficker could inspire you? John Newton found himself the captain of a ship transporting slaves from Africa to England. On each journey, he mercilessly subjected hundreds to inhumane conditions only to be sold if they survived. But in a life-threatening storm, he cried out to God for help. Saved from imminent death, Newton soon realized he had also been saved from himself. Twenty years into his journey of knowing the grace and mercy of God, Newton penned Amazing Grace, an unforgettable hymn of redemption.

The Life of John Newton will inspire every man, woman, and child. Newton's spiritual transformation highlights the unstoppable force of God's love and unlimited grace regardless of one's own wretched history.

This Christian Classic was originally published in 1831. Each page has been meticulously reproduced. With tattered-edged pages and a vintage cover, Life of John Newton is now an affordable, timeless classic for a new generation interested in the foundations of our Christian heritage. Little Aggie's Fresh Snowdrops & Little Violet - A.L.O.E.	K5834	$	13.00
--	--------------	-----------	--------------

On the surface, Little Aggie's Fresh Snowdrops is a story that follows some beautiful little flowers, snowdrops, through the course of a day. It records how, with their simple beauty, they change the lives they touch. However, the story has a deeper layer--a layer that accentuates a number of golden Christian traits that come to life in those who encounter the snowdrops throughout the story. While following the snowdrops from person to person, each with his or her own difficult situation, it is a short expose on how God's own people handle such difficulties, maintain their joy, and find gratefulness to God as He brings them what they need.

Little Violet is a story of how a little girl named Violet finds her life transformed when she learns that God has created her to bring sweetness and goodness into lives, just as He has created the violets in the garden to do so. Witness the character transformation that takes place when she begins to see every situation as an opportunity sent from her Saviour instead of a coincidence. Heartwarming. A.L.O.E. 81 pages.

Little Daisy and the Swearing Class - Character Building Collection	GT08	$ 10.00

This is a favorite! It is just delightful. It is the story of a little orphan girl and her great love and respect for God. By her example and testimony, the other children learn not to take the Lord's name in vain. A good discussion takes place about the Bible and God, including how even the words spoken lightly, such as mercy, my goodness, etc. are really just Christian swear words.

Part of the Character Building Collection. Filled with rich, Christ-centered content, these reprints from the best of the American Tract Society's children's selections of the 1800's will be valued by any family who desires their children to be saturated in God's truth, as portrayed in fascinating stories. 95 pages.

Little Lame Walter - The Young Hero of Faith	GP35205	$ 5.90

This true story is set in Russia and begins at the close of Russia's revolution with the Communist takeover. The loss of freedom even extends to the Christian orphanage where Walter, a lame boy, lives. The Christian staff is replaced with a communist staff with orders to stamp out the faith of the children. The children, little believers in the Lord Jesus, refuse to give up their faith in Him. They suffer great persecution and some eventually become martyrs for the Lord rather than sin and deny Him. It is an unforgettable story of courage, love, and faithfulness.

~ We have just finished reading this aloud as a Family - it was a difficult task - as tears were a common occurrence reading of what these young believers endured. It is an incredibly sobering book with a godly example for us all. Oh, that we will stand as strong as they! It is a book that should be in every home. ~ N.I.Saloff-Astakhoff. 64 pages

Little Pilgrim's Progress - John Bunyan's Classic Simplified for Young Readers by Helen L Taylor	GT52	$ 17.00

This is the very best simplified edition of The Pilgrim's Progress done with small children in mind. 55 years ago, Helen Taylor took up the labor of love to simplify the vocabulary of Bunyan's classic work, while keeping the storyline intact. This is by far the best, and most faithful-to-the-original simplified version of Bunyan's classic that we know of. Let your youngest children discover the riches of God's grace along with the rest of the family as they can follow Pilgrim's journey.

If you're not familiar with the story, it is a gripping adventure and profound allegory of the Christian journey through life. Fresh illustrations for today's children enliven the story of Pilgrim's voyage to the Celestial City. For children 6-12 years of age. Helen L. Taylor. 256 pages.

Livingstone, David - Biography K5818 $ 13.00

This excellent biography reveals the heart of this dedicated servant of our Lord Jesus Christ. His first desire was to reach the natives for the Lord with salvation. Because of constant and aggressive opposition to missionaries by the white slave traders, he was forced to become an explorer in order to open up a new path for missionaries to come into Africa. His next earnest desire was to stop the horrors of the slave trade. His life was one of loneliness and suffering, but he never lost sight of his mission as a servant to the Lord. He was faithful to Christ unto the end. You will also enjoy reading about his precious relationship with his dear wife, Mary. Livingstone's life will be an encouragement to you. He was a man of great character and loved the Lord with his whole heart! J. J. Ellis. 77 pages.

Livingstone, David & Moffat, Robert - Biography K4097 $ 16.00

~You will be blessed to read the life of Robert Moffat. He loved the Lord and served Him well. He left his beloved Scotland for the dark continent of Africa. There he spent his entire life patiently sowing God's Word in the hearts of the natives. He lived with the barest of necessities while rearing his family. He endured unspeakable hardships as he took every opportunity to teach the natives. He translated the Bible into their language. He left an enduring ministry which his son carried on after him. It is a very great blessing to read the account of his departure from this temporal earth to his eternal home in heaven. Oh, may we all learn to love our Saviour and have as deep a relationship with Jesus as Robert Moffat had!

Lord Is My Shepherd, The - The Twenty-Third Psalm CCP249-9 $ 25.90

There is no more beautiful piece of literature than the twenty-third Psalm. The very first expression in this psalm, "The LORD is my shepherd," has calmed troubled hearts for thousands of years. The LORD is my Shepherd. Is He your Shepherd? This book will bring you to a greater understanding of this wonderful psalm. 184 pages

Lord, Send A Revival CCP371-2 $ 25.90

The greatest need for this hour is for revival. It is our responsibility to evangelize the world. We must take the message of Jesus Christ to every creature. World-evangelism is not a man-made idea; it is not a marketing method someone came up with to sell religious material. It is the command of Jesus Christ to go "into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). But evangelism is not revival.

A revival involves the people of God. Evangelism is God's people telling lost people about Christ. Revival is a new beginning of obedience to God. Habakkuk declared, "O Lord, revive thy work." Clarence Sexton. 163 pages.

Making Brothers and Sisters Best Friends - Book	TF1001	$ 17.50
Brothers and sisters are among the most important people in life! Yet often they are also the most trouble. Many siblings fight, argue and miss out on the close relationship that God intends. The problem is not just the surface battles but the underlying attitudes, wrong concepts and offences. Many broken relationships never get fixed. Few enjoy the special life-long treasure that God intended. The emphasis of this book is not merely "getting along" with your brothers and sisters, but making them your best friends. Every chapter of the book has a section written by Sarah, Stephen, and Grace, giving the book three perspectives and three personalities. It includes many personal stories, lots of humour, cartoons, practical ideas, and helpful insights. We encourage entire families to read it aloud together. Man of the House, The - Isabella Alden	K3240	$ 20.00
This is another excellent book by Mrs. Alden. It is about a young man who at a very early age became the man of the house. He had the large responsibility of caring for his mother and younger sister as best he could. It was a responsibility which he took very seriously and bore to the best of his ability. This book teaches by example how God meets daily needs when we put our faith in Him. It also illustrates the value of the ability to be content when things seem difficult. As a backdrop to these lessons, the reader is allowed to see some of the inner workings of this young man's heart as he decides that the only right thing to do is to embrace the Saviour. There are other lessons as he struggles with the thought that he must "show his colors." This story will hold fast the interest of young men and young ladies while moving from one valuable lesson to the next as the story winds on. Isabella Alden. 255 pages.

Managers of Their Schools - A Practical Guide to Homeschooling	T21110	$ 36.50
Have you ever wanted to sit down with an experienced homeschooling couple and ask them every question you could think of about homeschooling? Managers of Their Schools: A Practical Guide to Homeschooling is the next best thing. With eight children and twenty-three years as a homeschooling family, Steve and Teri share their answers to the questions they are frequently asked. This book is filled with practical information regarding how one family homeschools, what they use, why they do what they do, and how it all works for them. Details of homeschooling in a real-life family are set down, from how they make curricula decisions to whether their children take tests. After spending their first twelve years searching for a homeschool method that met their Scriptural and educational criteria, they finally began using Christian textbooks and have never wanted to change direction again. In this book, Steve and Teri share the benefits their family has gained from using textbooks, and they refute the reasons many will say homeschoolers should not use textbooks. Manual for the Young: Bridges' Practical Exposition of Proverbs 1-9	GT24	$ 23.00
This is heavier material than the title sounds, but immensely valuable for family readings nonetheless. It contains the comments of Charles Bridges on the first 9 chapters of the Book of Proverbs. Charles Spurgeon always declared this to be the best work on Proverbs he had ever read. Parents can read this work aloud with the family, holding the attention of children 12 and up; or, a serious young Bible student in your home, ages 15 and up. Based on the KJV. Charles Bridges. 106 pages.
Marriage By Divine Design - Booklet	CCP066-2	$ 5.90
Ideas so contrary to the Bible have become institutionalized in the thinking of people. This is why it is much more important for those of us who truly claim to be Bible-believing Christians to tell the truth in love and not try to accommodate the decaying morals and behavior of our present world. Children are going to be bombarded with what they have been told is the majority opinion, and it will differ from your opinion. We must firmly fix in their minds that the Bible is the inherent Word of God, that it is God's Word for all time, and that God's children, with God's help, must seek to adhere to the standards of God's Word. If you are going to have marriage by divine design, which is at the foundation of all of civilization, then we must realize that God has designed marriage with a pattern. He has made it simple to find and follow that pattern. May God help you to have a marriage that is by divine design, marriage by His pattern, pure and permanent. Clarence Sexton. 22 pages

Me? A Widow? Compelling Reading for the Grieving and Practical Principles for... Minister(ing) to the Sorrowing	BB25	$ 10.00
The Bible says in James 1:27: "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction..." This book will especially help pastors and the church family understand how to minister comfort and support to the widow. May the Lord use what you find in these pages to encourage you to enter into this area of service-which in general has been sadly neglected by the church. This book will also help the widow through her journey of grief and enable her to find acceptance and peace. I trust as I recount how the Lord has enabled me through my own journey of grief, it will bolster your faith, and that the "Suggestions for the Widow" section will give you new hope for the difficult days ahead. Together may we especially draw comfort from what the Bible says in Matthew 5:4: "Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted." Hazel Mitchell. 83 pages.
Me? Obey Him? - The Obedient Wife & God's Way of Happiness & Blessing in the Home	SLP8551	$ 15.00
Homes across America are in serious trouble! Quite often, the root of the problem lies with a confusion of authority. Very often, the guilt lies at our feet, ladies as we seek to take the wheel of authority ourselves and clash with our husbands. But can't a woman be her own person and still be a good wife? Doesn't she have rights as well? What if the man is truly wrong? Is there a way to biblically confront him? Elizabeth Rice Handford answers all these questions and more in Me? Obey Him? Packed with Scripture, this book reveals how ladies everywhere are unintentionally hurting themselves, and damaging their own homes! Don't let your marriage be a casualty on the battlefield for your rights! Mrs. Handford's points are sometimes controversial, but always thoughtful, full of love, and firmly Bible-based. Me? Obey Him? is perfect for personal reading and for small group study among Christian women. It is the ideal gift for newly-weds and about-to-be-weds, and Christian women of all ages. This book was written by a woman, for women. Elizabeth Handford. 100 pages
Meekness - Character Curriculum	K4223	$ 12.40
In order to possess meekness, as we ponder the definitions, we must realize that it must be found in knowing Jesus Christ, Who is Meekness. Then we will gain some measure of it for ourselves. "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls."—Matthew 11:29. Knowing Jesus, Who is meek and lowly in heart, will bring rest unto our souls. What a lovely truth that is! We, who are so full of unrest, will find rest in Him. Have you ever pondered why and how Jesus, the Son of God, the King of kings, Ruler of the universe, could also be lowly in heart? Do you not think He could be proud of His position? Instead, He is the essence of humility, and beckons us poor sinners to come to Him for rest. We shall learn to be more like Him as we study meekness. 68 pages.

Ministry of Intercession, The - Volume I - Andrew Murray	BBM14	$	14.00
In The Ministry of Intercession Andrew Murray presents two main truths. One is that "Christ actually meant prayer to be the great power by which His Church should do its work". Secondly, "that we have far too little conception of the place that intercession ought to have in the Church and the Christian life". Intercession is the great work that our Saviour is engaged in, and His children ought to do likewise. Andrew Murray. 212 pages

Modesty - Character Curriculum	K5141	$	12.40
Modesty is a godly and biblical attitude or state of our hearts which truly directs our behavior. The Bible says, "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he."—Proverbs 23:7. This is certainly true. The opposite of modesty is conceit. When one is conceited one has an overly high opinion of one's self. In the dictionary the synonyms for conceit include pride, self-glory, self-esteem, self-exaltation, self-importance, and many more. Hmm . . . We can see the picture—SELF is at the center of every thing that is not modest. In fact, modesty is the only opposite given for conceit. So, if we act in a proud manner, are a show-off, speak loudly, brag about ourselves or our possessions, wear flashy clothes that draw attention to us, or throw tantrums, or (and you can probably fill in the blank), you can be sure that SELF is at the center of our hearts, and a modest spirit is nowhere to be found. Why is a modest spirit important? Because a modest spirit is the spirit of Christ. "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men."—Philippians 2:5-7. We pray that this little study will help you to identify what attitude is in your heart, and how you can replace it with the spirit of modesty. 68 pages.
Moffat, Robert - Biography	K5817	$	11.10
You will be blessed to read the life of Robert Moffat. He loved the Lord and served Him well. He left his beloved Scotland for the dark continent of Africa. There he spent his entire life patiently sowing God's Word in the hearts of the natives. He lived with the barest of necessities while rearing his family. He endured unspeakable hardships as he took every opportunity to teach the natives. He translated the Bible into their language. He left an enduring ministry which his son carried on after him. It is a very great blessing to read the account of his departure from this temporal earth to his eternal home in heaven. Oh, may we all learn to love our Saviour and have as deep a relationship with Jesus as Robert Moffat had! 65 pages

These delightful, fiction children's books are about a Christian homeschool family, the Moodys. You will not find bad examples that your children might inadvertently end up imitating-but rather a godly family working together and serving the Lord Jesus! Your children could even surprise you with the positive things they begin doing in YOUR own family . . . Watch and see! The Moody Family Series celebrates the adventures of everyday life in a Christian family. Each book includes black and white illustrations. Sarah Maxwell.
Moody Family Series Book 1 - Summer With The Moodys	T21170	$	14.50

Summer with the Moodys is the first book in the Moody Family Series. This book celebrates the adventures of everyday life in a Christian family! Come along with the Moodys as they help a widowed neighbor, start small businesses for the children, enjoy a family fun night, live normal life, and wrap up the book with two special surprises! Woven throughout the book is the Moodys' love for the Lord and their enjoyment of time together. Children (parents too!) will love Mr. and Mrs. Moody, Max, Mollie, Mitch, and Maddie—they'll come away challenged and encouraged. Often parents are concerned about negative examples and role models in books their children are reading. One goal in writing the Moody Series was to eliminate those kinds of examples replacing them with positive, godly ones. Summer with the Moodys grew out of the need we saw for godly, children's reading material. This book was written to encourage Christian families to a closer walk with Jesus, to a greater intimacy in family relationships, and to a focus on serving and working. Reading comprehension level: ages 7-12. Read aloud comprehension level: ages 4-99. Sarah Maxwell. 197 pages

Moody Family Series Book 2 - Autumn With The Moodys T21180 $ 14.50

Autumn with the Moodys is the second book in the Moody Family Series! Starting where Summer with the Moodys ended, the Moodys begin their new homeschool year. Not only is Mom experiencing morning sickness, but Maple, the eleven-week-old puppy, adds her twist of excitement. Packed into the book, you'll find the Moodys helping their grandparents move nearby, an emergency trip to the doctor's office, puppy training, birthday excitement, blessing neighbors, homeschooling--and to wrap the book up--a special Thanksgiving surprise! You will not find bad examples that your children might inadvertently end up imitating--but rather a godly family working together and serving the Lord Jesus! Your children could even surprise you with the positive things they begin doing in YOUR own family . . . Watch and see! The book is also illustrated with one drawing per chapter. Sarah Maxwell. 189 pages

Moody Family Series Book 3 - Winter With The Moodys T21172 $ 14.50

Winter with the Moodys begins with midnight excitement. Then, early in December, Miss Carolyn, the midwife, comes to the house to check on Mom and her baby. Throughout the book, friendly but slightly eccentric Mr. Delome pops over for a few unexpected visits. As Christmas approaches, the Moodys are busy preparing to bless others. Readers may remember Mrs. Bagwell from the two previous books. She invites Mrs. Moody and the children over to visit her one afternoon. Grandpa's life transformation is woven throughout the story. The heart-stopping conclusion contains a surprise ending that will thrill and delight you. Come join the Moodys for the winter! Sarah Maxwell. 98 pages

Moody Family Series Book 4 - Spring With The Moodys T21174 $ 14.50

Spring with the Moodys is the fourth book in the Moody Family Series. As the twins' birth nears, the children want to bless Mom, and their surprising idea for how to do that is a huge success. In the midst of waiting for the twins, a pet-sitting job is unexpectedly given to them and brings its own excitement. There is incredible joy when the Moody twins arrive! Mr. Delome, the neighbor across the street, continues to be part of the Moodys' lives along with other familiar characters from the first three books. Come join the Moody family for the spring. A main goal for the Moody Family Series is that these books would be used to encourage families to draw closer to Jesus and to each other. We want to hold up a model for children that would cause them to choose to be loving, helpful, kind and considerate—more like Jesus. While the Moody family may seem like a perfect family, they are the picture that Scripture sets before us of a family. Each of the twenty chapters includes a black and white illustration. Sarah Maxwell. 197 pages

Moody Family Series Book 5 - Summer Days With The Moodys T21176 $ 14.50

Summer Days with the Moodys, the fifth book in the series, continues to follow the lives of the Moody family whom many across the world have grown to love. Although this family is fictional, the everyday adventures and down-to-earth situations make them seem real to readers. Will Max, Mollie, Mitch, and Maddie start summer businesses? What about Mr. Delome across the street—what is he like now that he's saved? Will Mr. Gibson (also know as Big Red) be in this book? Are Grandpa and Grandma going to move next door? Find out the answers in this long-awaited sequel! The book begins with an unexpected twist and a heart-pulling event occurs near the end. Packed in between is helping an elderly couple, moving the twins into the children's room, testing time at Grandma's, celebrating the 4th of July in Moody style, developing more of a friendship with Mrs. Bagwell, and much more! Sarah Maxwell. 194 pages

Moody Family Series Book 6 - Autumn Days With The Moodys T21178 $ 14.50

Autumn Days, the sixth book in the Moody Family Series, picks up where Summer Days left off. Now that Mrs. Bagwell is saved, what will she be like? Will the Moodys have a "normal" few months? What will the bank and Mitch have in common? What excitement will happen to the Moodys in this book? The book starts with an unexpected event, and then guests are scheduled to come. Their visit leaves the Moodys with a surprise challenge. Mr. Gibson's wife is a key part of this story line, and a trip to the apple orchard becomes a special family time. Come join the Moodys as they delight in serving the Lord Jesus! 20 illustrations. Sarah Maxwell. 205 pages.

Moody Family Series Book 7 - Winter Days With The Moodys T21182 $ 14.50

The seventh book in the series continues to follow the Moody family as they experience life, serve the Lord Jesus, love each other, and work as a team. How do the Moodys deal with a challenging, yet not uncommon, situation? What will the holiday season hold? How will the Moodys share Jesus with others? What is Maddie's special birthday gift? As is often the case with a Moody book, the story begins with excitement, but the excitement doesn't stop there. A surprising event happens after a simple excursion to the grocery store. Then, follow the family as they make their Christmas season special. Later the girls and Mom go on a shopping trip, and Mitch pays a visit to the eye doctor. The weekly neighborhood Bible study continues, and while preparing, Mom encounters the vacuum. Two chances to bless others through I-J-N (In Jesus' Name) are woven into the story line. The book ends with two, well, you'll have to find out! 20 illustrations. Sarah Maxwell. 213 pages.

This is the excellent sequel to Little Pillows, an evening devotional book written especially for children. In Morning Bells, a child is encouraged to begin his day with a "morning bell," a devotional reading of Scripture to encourage his heart to live for Jesus that day. The bells inspire godly living in the youngest of believers and give practical direction to their footsteps. Frances Ridley Havergal. 64 pages. Limited Stock

Morning Stars - Names of Christ For His Little Ones - Frances Havergal	SG1009	$ 12.00
This book is the sequel to Frances Havergal's wonderful devotional gem for children Little Pillows & Morning Bells. This was the last book she wrote before her death. This book takes little children by the hand and points out to them in simple, biblical language 31 of the Names of Christ scattered throughout Scripture. Some of the Names included in this little jewel are: SAVIOUR, BRIGHT AND MORNING STAR, FRIEND, BROTHER, REDEEMER, SUBSTITUTE, SHEPHERD, COMMANDER, ROCK, RIGHTEOUSNESS & PRINCE OF PEACE. Frances wrote "One thing I want to be quite clear about. No amount of "good little books" will do you any good unless they lead you to love the Book of books. If you really love Jesus you are quite sure to love His word. But one reason why some of you do not love it half as much as you wish you did, is because you do not know enough of it, and you only read, you don't search; which is what God expressly tells you to do. A capital piece of advise was given by a man who did a very great deal towards leading people to love and know their Bibles. He said: "When you take your Bibles, you should be always hunting for something!" ~ We love this book as it encourages children to search the Scripture themselves. There is space left for the reader to add the verses after they find them in their Bibles. ~

Most Important Key In Rearing Children to Serve the Lord - Dealing With Anger For The Love of the Family	TC05	$ 5.50
Pastor Coomer takes us step by step on how to deal with ungodly anger in our lives. He also shows us how to rear our children to not have an angry spirit. Many Christian's homes, marriages, and children have been destroyed by ungodly anger in the home. Many Christians do not realize they have an angry spirit and do not realize the serious problems which result from their ungodly anger. A powerful exposition of the anger passages of the Bible. A must read if you are serious about wanting your children to grow up and serve God and desire practical help in dealing with the hidden sin of Christianity. Booklet. Terry Coomer. 28 pages
Mother at Home	GT54	$ 12.50
Long esteemed as one of the most valued works from the 19th century on the art of mothering and the glory of the work of the mother at home. For any girl who was raised without much discipline and in need of instruction on proper discipline of her own children, this is a superb guide. Rarely in print and worth obtaining at any price. Christian mothers who want biblical counsel on Christian child rearing will find this book valuable. The Mother at Home first appeared in 1833 as a book published by the American Tract Society. It enunciates and illustrates certain basic principles of the duty of the mother in raising up her children in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord." The Mother at Home stresses the great importance of raising up children under the eye of God, always conscious of His presence and submitted to His Word-the Holy Scriptures. John S.C. Obedience - Character Curriculum	K4072	$	12.40
God wants His children to be obedient. Imagine for a moment having children who do not obey. Exactly what would that be like? An obedient person is one who obeys what he is told to do—not with questions or grumbling, but cheerfully and promptly. If we obey with a pout or a frown, we are really disobeying in our thoughts and hearts. God wants us to obey happily, and with smiles on our faces. When we obey, it also shows that we love Jesus and we want to serve Him. "And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments." —1 John 2:3. Every day we have choices and decisions to make. Will we obey God? Or do we prefer our own way? God wants us to obey Him in every thing that we do. When we are obedient, we please Him. This shows that we love Him, and that we want to serve Him. "If ye love me, keep my commandments." —John 14:15. When we obey our parents and others in authority over us, it shows that we love and respect them too. How do you affect the world around you? Do you offer cheer and trust to those around you by being obedient? Or are you one of those people who has your own way while those around you patiently endure the discomfort of it? Let's each decide to change our world. We can start by obeying God in all things and then by making others less uncomfortable—by being obedient. 68 pages.
Of Loyalty and Lost Vision	K4526	$	14.00
Have you ever asked yourself to whom you should be loyal? Is it to leaders? To country? To groups? To man? To church? To God? What happens when there are conflicts? What happens when a leader tells you not to ask questions, but to obey and trust the leadership? What happens when a woman is married to an ungodly man who asks her to sin for or with him? Is there such a thing as blind obedience or blind loyalty? The answers to these and many more questions will be answered in Of Loyalty and Lost Vision. Confusion and conflicts will be resolved and the peace that comes from restoring faithfulness and true vision will be restored as you read and study this small book. 90 pages

Parables of Jesus, The - Volume I	CCP370-0	$	25.90
Nearly one third of the recorded teachings of Jesus Christ are given to us in parables. We must understand the parables of Christ to understand the teaching of Christ. All of His parables are found in the first three Gospel records: the Gospel according to Matthew, the Gospel according to Mark, and the Gospel according to Luke. Parables are not fables, for parables come from real situations. The word parable means "to cast alongside." It is a story cast alongside a spiritual truth to help us understand the spiritual truth. As we study these parables given by the Lord Jesus, we discover the greatest stories ever told. Clarence Sexton. 188 pages

Patience - Character Curriculum	K5128	$	12.40
All of us want people to be patient with us. Patient people are kind, understanding, accepting, merciful, and loving. When we make honest mistakes, they never scold or criticize. When we fail, they never make us feel badly. When we get out-of-sorts, they seem to understand and overlook our shortcomings. Patient people just seem to know all about us, and love us just the same as if we were perfect. Since patience is such a wonderful virtue, and we want people to have patience with us, should we not strive to develop patience and be patient with all those around us? And, even more, did you know God's Word exhorts us many times to have patience? As we do this study on patience, we will find that there is only one thing that keeps us from acting patiently, and that is our self. So, let us patiently begin this study to learn just how we can develop patience. 69 pages.

Paton, John G - Biography	K5732	$ 11.10
When the long-awaited call of God for John G. Paton to go to the mission field came, he quickly answered, "Here am I, send me." The mission board could find no one who would go to the faraway New Hebrides Islands. Cruelty, oppression, slavery, immorality, and cannibalism were a few of the things he faced on this field. His perseverance, love, and faithfulness will be an inspiration to all who read the story of his life. Oh, that we all could love and serve our Saviour as this man did. James T. Allen. 56 pages.

Pentecostal - Charismatic Movements, The	WOL49	$ 28.00
Quoted from Author David Cloud "I have been examining and re-examining the Pentecostal-Charismatic movements for more than three decades since I was led to Christ by a Pentecostal in 1973 and began to seek God's will about tongues-speaking and the miraculous gifts of the early churches. I have built a large library of materials on this subject and have interviewed Pentecostals and Charismatics and attended their churches in many parts of the world. I have also attended large Charismatic conferences with press credentials. I have approached these studies with an open mind in the sense of having a commitment only to the truth and not to anyone's tradition. I am a member of an independent Baptist church but Baptist doctrine and practice is not my authority; the Bible is. Each fresh evaluation of the Pentecostal-Charismatic movement has brought an increased conviction that it is unscriptural and dangerous." 317 pages

Pilgrim Church, The	GFP01	$ 45.00
It ought to be obvious to even the casual observer of history that the real story of the church is not the one recorded in secular history. This classic work by E.H. Broadbent demonstrates that the true heart of this amazing drama is not even recorded in church history books. This is the saga of those intrepid believers, "of whom the world was not worthy", who not only were persecuted by civil authorities, but were denounced, defamed, and decimated by the professing church . Who were the Waldensians? The Lollards? The Stundists? The Anabaptists? These names were given by their enemies to those who claimed only the name of Christ, and who were prepared to suffer for His cause rather than submit to those man-made traditions that they believed contradicted the Word of God. Written in an engaging style, the author will thrill your heart with the stories of unknown heroes of the faith. It will spur you on to greater devotion to the Lord Jesus and a deeper concern for His suffering people in many countries today. Author: E. H. Broadbent. Forward by Dave Hunt. 468 pages.

Power of the Blood of Jesus, The & Blood of the Cross, The	BBM16	$	18.00
What does the "power of the blood" really mean to the Believer? Andrew Murray came to this question and began to explore what Scripture has to say about the Blood of Christ and found the study to be a great blessing to him and became the subject of twenty messages preached to his congregation in South Africa. Of this subject Andrew Murray is quoted as saying, "I am deeply convinced that we Christians can never know too much about the truths which the blood proclaims." 272 pages

Prayer - D.L. Moody	BB19	$	10.00
Prayer in accordance to the Word of God? The author's own words describe this book best: "The following chapters relate especially to Prayer; but in order that our prayers may be for such things as are according to the will of God, they must be based upon the revelation of His own will to us; for of Him, and through Him, and to him are all things; and it is only by hearing His Word, in which we learn His purposes toward us and towards the world, that we can pray acceptably, praying in the Holy Ghost, asking those things which are pleasing in His sight." Author: DL Moody.
Prayer - James H. McConkey	BB26	$	10.50

Preparing Sons - Audio Book	T21530	$ 30.50
Preparing Sons - Steve Maxwell	T21130	$ 20.50
"What a blessing your book was! I don't believe I have read anything else that deals so thoroughly and properly with the subject as you have." Dr. S. M. Davis In today's world of two-income families, preparing a son to provide for a single-income family seems an overwhelming task. Christian parents will find it helpful to have a purpose and plan as they raise sons who will one day be responsible for supporting a family. Steve Maxwell presents the groundwork for preparing your son to be a wage-earning adult. He gives practical suggestions and direction to parents for working with their sons from preschool age all the way through to adulthood. You will be challenged to evaluate your own life and the example you are setting for your son. As the father of eight children, six of them now wage-earning adults, Steve has gained valuable experience he openly shares with other parents. Learn these principles from a dad whose 24-year-old homeschooled son has purchased a home debt free and whose second son has done the same. Steve explains how it is possible for parents, with a willing commitment, to properly prepare their sons to provide for a single-income family. This book has many principles that can be applied to daughters as well! Steve Maxwell. 192 pages

Redeeming The Time - A Practical Guide to a Christian Man's Time Management - Book T21160 $ 24.50

Most men today would say that they are under time pressure. In the midst of their busyness, there are key aspects of their daily lives that suffer such as their relationships with the Lord, with their wives, and with their children. They aren't keeping up with their normal responsibilities. They are tired, stressed, and struggling.

Titus2 ministry founder, engineer, and CEO of two small businesses, Steve Maxwell has much experience in time management. He shares Biblical truths that will allow a man to gain control over the time pressures that he is facing. Steve discusses practical aspects of time management that put a man on a path to being able to keep up with the various demands on his time.

Over the years, Steve has had many interactions with men who are struggling to keep up with their responsibilities. He even addresses different work situations dads face such as working second shift, being in the military, and having changing work hours. In this book you will learn how it is possible to go from pressure, chaos, and stress to peace, order, and productivity. Steve Maxwell. 236 pages. Also available as an unabridged Audio Book.

Repentance and Soul Winning WOL20 $ 14.00

This is an in-depth study on biblical repentance and a timely warning about unscriptural methods of presenting the gospel. The opening chapter, entitled "Fundamental Baptists and Quick Prayerism: A Faulty Method of Evangelism Has Produced a Change in the Doctrine of Repentance," traces the change in the doctrine of repentance among fundamental Baptists during the past 50 years. Chapter Two is an extensive study on biblical repentance and includes what repentance is not, a study of every Bible passage dealing with repentance, repentance defined by preachers of old, illustrations of repentance, and God's repentance. Chapter Three looks at four "Unscriptural Presentations of Repentance": (1) An Easy Prayerism Presentation: Failing to deal plainly with repentance. (2) An Insufficient Presentation: Failing to define the terms of the Gospel so the hearers plainly understand, and failing to contrast the true Gospel with false gospels. (3) A Positive Presentation: Failing to lay a proper foundation of the holiness of God and the sinfulness of man. (4) A Need-Oriented Presentation: Failing to make a distinction between genuine salvation and mere reformation and ritual.

Chapter Four is titled "Does Salvation Make a Difference," demonstrating that profession without a corresponding change of life is not biblical salvation. Chapter Five, "Pentecost vs. Hylescost," contrasts Jack Hyles evangelistic methodology with the Bible. Chapter Six answers questions that commonly arise pertaining to this subject, including "Are you preaching lordship salvation?" and "Isn't your definition of repentance a works salvation?" David Cloud. 201 pages.

Repentance Is More Than a Change Of Mind - Bruce Lackey BBL07 $ 6.00

In this day and age of "easy-believism" this book puts in clear perspective the principle of repentance. Dr. Bruce Lackey points out very plainly the scriptural definition of repentance as being a change of mind which results in a change of action, backing up his words with many proofs from the Word of God. Bruce Lackey. 32 pages.

Respectfulness - Character Curriculum K5842 $ 12.40

We all know that we should have respect, but who and what shall we respect? You probably knew that it can be a sin when we do not give proper respect. But it is also a sin when we give respect wrongly. It is prudent to be properly respectful, and God's Word says that He blesses it. Just consider Exodus 20:12 which says, "Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee." Yet Proverbs 24:23 says, "These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment." So, sometimes we are to respect people, and sometimes we are not. What makes the difference? God's Word does. He tells us when and how to offer respect, and He will bless us when we give, or do not give respect, as long as we do it properly. Thus, it seems important that we learn how to be respectful, or to handle this thing called respect. Let's learn now, shall we? 68 pages.

Richest Christian Game, The	OP01	$	58.00
------------------------------------	-------------	-----------	--------------

We are very excited to be able to offer you something that until now has not been offered to New Zealanders before... The Richest Christian Game!
 "Enjoy learning what God says about the purpose and use of money" The RICHEST CHRISTIAN will help you teach your children both how to handle money and how to lay up treasure in heaven.
 This game is sure to become one of your Family favourites! This game encourages ministering to others with your money rather than spending your money for selfish gain.
 Do you know God's instructions for handling money in this life?
 Have you stored up any treasures in Heaven? God says, "But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven... For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (Matthew 6:20-21).
 The Winner is the player with the most Eternal Treasures at the end of the game. (Of course, Every Player Wins... because each one gains knowledge about God's purpose and use of money.)
 Your children are learning math, reading, science, history, etc. Now here is an interesting way for them to learn God's ways to handle money. They will need these principles all the days of their lives. And your family will enjoy the game!
 Ages - Anyone Who Can Read (Ages 8 - Adult)
 • Verses on getting money • Verses warning about wasteful losses of money • Verses on dishonest gain of money • Verses on how to use money to minister to others

Robbie's Light	K1402	$	5.90
-----------------------	--------------	-----------	-------------

This is an exceptional story which will impress deeply the scripture "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matt 5:16. It is a boy's struggle in the midst of poverty, withstanding the taunting of peers and elders, and the pain of loneliness to let his light shine. It will encourage the reader to persevere despite the obstacles one faces. This is well worth reading for anyone.
 S. Annie Frost. 44 pages.

Robinson Crusoe - Daniel Defoe	D27353	$	20.00
---------------------------------------	---------------	-----------	--------------

Robinson Crusoe's adventure takes place on a remote island. Adjusting to the primitive conditions, he learns to make tools, shelters, bread, and clothes. More importantly, he becomes a Christian.
 Modern editions tend to leave out Crusoe's long struggle with God and his change as he studies God's Word. As part of the Classics for Young Readers Series, Kathryn Lindskoog faithfully preserves such details. Ages 9-13. Daniel Defoe. 192 pages

Rome And The Bible	WOL47	$	35.00
---------------------------	--------------	-----------	--------------

To our knowledge, this is the first history ever published which details the Roman Catholic Church's relationship to the Bible from the first millennium to the present. The book could also be titled "The Bible Through the Centuries." The author has spent thousands of dollars obtaining rare documents relevant to this history (such as a 1641 edition of Foxe's unabridged Acts and Monuments) and researched the topic in important theological libraries in Canada, America, and England, including the British Library. The book covers the Roman Catholic Inquisition from the 11th to the 19th centuries, particularly the role played by the Inquisition to keep translations of the Bible out of the hands of the common people. It contains the history of ancient separated Christians, including the Waldensians and the Lollards. It gives the history of the English Bible from John Wycliffe to William Tyndale, and the history of the Spanish, German, French, and Italian Bibles. It contains amazing biographies of royal queens who loved the Bible. It gives the decade-by-decade details of papal condemnations of 19th-century Bible societies and of Roman Catholic persecution in the 19th century.
 It describes the 20th-century phenomenon of Rome changing tactics and joining hands with the Bible societies. It documents the similarities between the Latin Vulgate and the modern versions. It answers the question: Has the Roman Catholic Church changed? The book contains 95 illustrations from rare out-of-print books. Dr. Ian Paisley, Martyrs Memorial Presbyterian Church, Belfast, Northern Ireland, commended us for Rome and the Bible and showed us his copy in which he had written the following words: "Brother Cloud is not beclouded!" Fourth edition revised and enlarged, September 2001, 175 x 200mm. David Cloud. 331 pages

Samuel Morris Biography - The Apostle of Simple Faith	TW01	$	14.00
HE WAS NOT YOUR "TYPICAL" MISSIONARY----HE WAS AN AFRICAN CALLED TO SERVE IN THE UNITED STATES. No one would believe the adventures of nineteenth-century missionary Samuel Morris----unless they believe in a God of compassion and grace. Samuel Morris began life as Kaboo, the son of a tribal chieftain. He was a prince, but he became a pawn----held in torturous limbo until his father could pay ransom to an enemy tribe. When Kaboo's captors became too greedy and no amount of ivory could rescue him, a death of unbelievable cruelty awaited. And then God intervened. From Kaboo's miraculous escape, to his acceptance of Christ and baptism by missionaries, to his remarkable voyage to America where he would have an amazing impact on scores of lives, the story of Samuel Morris is an adventure of divine proportions. Scriptural Goal of Teaching God's Word, The	L879	$	9.50
When people OBSERVED TO DO THE BIBLE, a spiritual awakening always followed. When preachers just teach the Word, people slowly settle down in their pews and become nominal believers. The spiritual condition in this country will continue to degenerate until people begin to "observe to do" God's Word once again. Our discipleship and Sunday School books could help get people back to "OBSERVING TO DO" God's Word again and help bring revival. James Wilkins. 91 pages.

At first the symptoms were barely perceptible. Then Gary began to notice an occasional tingling numbness, a little slip in coordination, and a slightly dragging foot. It was time to get checked out. Doctor Frere was thorough and asked many questions. Finally, looking at Gary through his rimless glasses, he stated flatly, "I think you may have Parkinson's." What a shock! Gary and his wife Marie looked into a yawning abyss of dark uncertainties, a prognosis leading from a healthy, active, and productive life to one limited by gradually deteriorating physical and mental faculties. Slowly the reality sank in. Where does one find strength and solace in such a time? Gary's story and testimony is open and honest about personal fears, discouragement, and victories. His candid, first-person portrayal of living with Mr. Parkinson is moving and inspiring. Gary Miller. 135 pages
Side by Side - Isabella Alden	K2303	$	11.10
This book has to be one of the best Mrs. Alden wrote! It is the story of two young girls, one a very wealthy girl, and the other, a very poor girl. One has grown up in Sunday school and church, and one has just begun to come to church. These girls sit side by side in Sunday school. This is a story of contrasts: rich and poor, educated and uneducated, and, more importantly, a professing girl, and one who has truly come to know the Savior. This gem of a story paints a black and white picture for children and adults of the difference between saying you are a Christian and actually being a Christian. Excellent! Every child should read this one! Isabella Alden. 59 pages

Slessor, Mary - Biography	K4099	$	14.00
The Missionary Heroine of Calabar-A Story of Mary Slessor. The biography of Mary Slessor will inspire all who read it! She was a woman who loved God, and was busy every minute of every day serving Him. She left Scotland to become a missionary in Africa—quite an act of faith for a single woman in those days. She ministered morning, noon, and night, quite fearlessly, to the sometimes very savage natives. She became a leader among the African chiefs, often settling their disputes without them resorting to violence. After her lifetime of service, many members of African tribes had come to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, and had become much more civilized in their ways, laying down lifetime superstitions and customs as they came under the power of the Word of God. You will be amazed at what this one woman accomplished as she was used of God. Esther E. Enock. 100 pages

Song of Songs, The - A Commentary on The Song of Solomon	VCP03	$	25.00

Song of Songs is the title the Holy Spirit assigns to the Song of Solomon in its very first verse. Few can deny the poetic beauty and majesty of the Song of Solomon – but what did the Holy Spirit intend for us to understand in this challenging, but intriguing book?
Song of Songs is a verse by verse commentary for Bible believers. Where many expositions consider the Song of Solomon from only a devotional perspective, Dr. Williams has attempted to uncover the doctrinal teachings of the book, as well as examining its historical setting and practical applications. Where many have succumbed to the temptation to spiritualize this poetic masterpiece, the author has endeavored to follow a literal approach in Bible interpretation and allow the Scriptures to speak for themselves.
Song of Songs will not only help you to understand this portion of Scripture better, but Lord willing it will help you to begin to grasp just how much our Saviour loves us and desires us to walk ever closer with Him.

State of the Churches, The - A Plea For More Prayer - Andrew Murray BBM11 $ 10.00
 Written near the end of the 19th century, Andrew Murray gives a vivid account of the churches of his day. The dwindling power and presence of the Holy Spirit and the lack of zeal on behalf of the membership. Dark days were before the author, and it seems, as Solomon so aptly wrote, there truly is nothing new under the sun. In our day, as in the author's, the only hope is for God's people to take hold upon heaven in prayer and cry out for the Spirit of God to pour out His blessing in both His power and presence. They Would Not Be Moved - Harvey Yoder TEN3004 $ 22.00

For young Anya, the red tie (a communist symbol) was so associated with denying God that she saw it as a ticket to hell. Year after year she saw the eighth graders at school receive the red emblem. Each year it struck new terror into her heart. Short stories about Christians in Romania and the former Soviet Union.

This is a companion book to They Would Not Be Silent. It contains true stories of the courageous and faithful believers in communist Romania and the former Soviet Union. It is sometimes good to read how our brothers and sisters in Christ live under such painful conditions; it should certainly help us to not be moved when we have the opportunities to stand for the Lord Jesus. Harvey Yoder. 206 pages.

They Would Not Be Silent - Harvey Yoder TEN3003 $ 22.00

This is an outstanding collection of stories of ordinary people enduring persecution for their faith under communistic rule in eastern Europe. The stories take place from 1945 until as late as 1989. This book is especially interesting as the stories were written from the perspective of being behind the Berlin wall in the former Soviet Union. It did reveal somewhat how communistic governments and parties operate, and also how some people viewed western countries and longed for their freedom. It also demonstrated how adversity will strengthen our faith and trust in God. There are stories of young teenagers coming to know God, and willing to go to prison and die for their faith in Jesus. This book showed how everyday people can live for God and take a stand for our faith no matter what our circumstances or occupation. There are some graphic details, so we would recommend it for older teens or adults. Inspirational and spiritually refreshing! They would not be silent concerning their devotion to the Lord Jesus. Harvey Yoder. 233 pages.

Things Hard to be Understood: A Handbook of Biblical Difficulties	WOLo4	$ 35.00
This very practical volume deals with a variety of biblical difficulties. Find the answer to the seeming contradictions in the Bible. Meet the challenge of false teachers who misuse biblical passages to prove their doctrine. Find out the meaning of difficult passages that are oftentimes overlooked in the Bible commentaries. Be confirmed in your confidence in the inerrancy and perfection of the Scriptures. Learn the meaning of difficult expressions such as "the unpardonable sin." One unique feature of this volume is that it contains no criticism of the King James Bible. We don't believe that it has any errors and we do not believe that any correction of it is necessary to solve the alleged contradictions and other difficulties. Another thing that sets this volume apart from others on this topic is its practical nature and the fact that it is written from a fundamentalist, Bible-believing Baptist viewpoint. The objective is to help protect God's people from the false teachers that abound in these last days. They raise nagging questions and doubts by misusing passages of Scripture to support their specious doctrines. They take Scripture out of context and otherwise abuse it, and we have dealt with many examples of this. For example, we examine verses misused by Seventh-day Adventists to support their doctrines of soul sleep and annihilation, verses misused by the Roman Catholic Church to support its doctrines of Mary and the Papacy and purgatory, verses misused by ecumenists and to justify their unscriptural goals (i.e., Mat. 7:1; Mk. 9:38-40; Jn. 13:35; 17:21; Acts 5:38-39; Rom. 14:4; 1 Cor. 4:5; 6:12-13; Eph. 4:3-6; and Jam. 4:11), verses misused to support infant baptism and baptismal regeneration (i.e., Mk. 16:6-17; Jn. 3:5; Acts 2:38; 22:16; Rom. 6:3-4; 1 Cor. 1:16; Titus 3:5; 1 Pet. 3:21), verses misused to support Calvinism (i.e., Jn. 6:37-40; 6:44; Acts 13:46-48; Rom. 8:29; 9:13-33; 11:19-32), and verses misused by those who deny the doctrine of eternal security. It deals with things such as the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, cremation, hair coverings, the first shall be last, did Jesus die on Friday, God forbid, God's repentance, healing in the atonement, judging, the letter of the law, Melchizedek, self defense, sinless perfectionism, soul sleep, and the Trinity. 4th edition, April 2006. David Cloud. 385 pages

Three People - Isabella Alden	K3527	$ 20.00
This is an outstanding book for young men! It is an exciting story that showcases the value of honesty, hard work and obedience. It is the story of three boys all born on the same day: one born into poverty, one born into middle class society, and one born into wealth. The lives of these three boys become intertwined as they grow and mature into young manhood. It portrays each young man's life as he faces the temptations of the world and his character is tested. The best thing about this book is that one young man is a follower of Christ with a fertile heart. He is prompt, courteous, respectful and honest, and, in due course, is rewarded accordingly. Young men will find this book inspiring as it gives them a glimpse of the men they can be. Parents, you will be well pleased with this example of manhood. Excellent for boys, but all ages will enjoy this title. As an adult, I couldn't put the book down! KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 270 pages.

Tongues Speaking in the Book of Acts and I Corinthians - For the Love of the Family	TC02	$ 6.00

This is an in depth study of all the passages dealing with this subject in Acts and I Corinthians. Easy to read and great to have available to give to people who are confused about this subject. One missionary who read the booklet commented, "I graduated from Bible College and I have never heard this subject presented in such a Biblical common sense way as Pastor Coomer has presented it. Great material." Booklet. Terry Coomer. 27 pages.

Tozer on Worship and Entertainment - A.W. Tozer D661033 $ 26.00

Selected Excerpts From the Writings and sermons of A.W. Tozer. "We are saved to worship God. All that Christ has done for us in the past and all that He is doing now leads to this one end." A.W. Tozer had strong convictions about the subject of worship as well as its corruption by what he referred to as "the Great God Entertainment."

The excerpts in this book were carefully selected to give you a clear picture of his thoughts on both topics.

Worship: Unacceptable Worship, Spiritual Concentration, The Presence of God, The Power of God, Personal Communion, Adoration and Hymns

Entertainment: Evangelical Heresy, Propaganda, An Outward Shift, Modern Evangelism, Religious Activity and Worldliness

Also included are Tozer's sermon "The Act and Object of Worship" in its entirety as well as his controversial essay, "The Menace of the Religious Movie," written in the mid 1950s. You might not agree with Tozer but as always he "draws a line in the sand" and causes the reader to think critically! A. W. Tozer. 209 pages.

True to Her Faith - A Story of France in the Time of the Huguenots D502205S $ 14.00

Suzanne de l'Orme's Huguenot family is under severe persecution as are other Protestants in the nation of France. The 1500s are a difficult time to be alive if you are unwilling to compromise. Sent on an errand by her mother, twelve year old Suzanne walks into an adventure that she fears she will never walk out of. Kidnapped by the authorities for being the child of a Bible believing family, Suzanne is interrogated and persecuted. If she will only disown her faith and her people she can be released from her prison and welcomed into the 'freedom' of the Roman Catholic Church. It is soon apparent that Suzanne will not give in and she is taken from the relative safety of the abbey to become a slave for a local farmer's family. Still refusing to discard her faith, Suzanne's faith strengthens and grows through her struggles. Will this captivity be the end for the young girl or will this adventure end with a new beginning for Suzanne's life?

Truthfulness - Character Curriculum K4224 $ 12.40

Truthfulness is being truthful—wholly truthful—full of truth. God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, and the Bible are Truth. "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."—John 1:14. "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ."—John 1:17. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."—John 14:6. "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. . ." —John 16:13. "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth."—John 17:17. Truth is whole truth—perfect truth. The source of all truth is God. And, of course, the father of lies is the devil. There is no middle ground. What is not wholly true is a lie. Have you ever thought about it this way before? Everything we learn in books, hear from our teachers, see on the television, listen to on the radio, and hear from our friends should be examined—first, at face value, then in the light of God's Word.

We must then examine our own lives—our thoughts, our words, and our actions. We must be very sure that we speak and live the truth, and that there is no lie in us. It is quite a challenge to be truthful in all words and actions. However, we must also be truthful in our hearts, for God sees our hearts. Let's study this trait with much carefulness. KOF 68 pages.

Truths Every Christian Needs To Know	CCP368-7	$ 25.90
The Word of God says in II Timothy 2:2, "And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." Those who know the truth must commit it to others and those who receive the truth must "teach others also." This is the principle to be followed in the work of the Lord. Each chapter of this book will provide truths every Christian needs to know. Clarence Sexton. 251 pages.

Two Bears, The - J.C.Ryle	GT21	$ 11.50
Many Christian parents wish their children could sit under the weekly ministry of a pastor as faithful to the Word of God as J.C. Ryle. This devout minister was one of the most beloved figures of 19th-century England, and never was there a clearer or more gifted communicator of the truths of the Bible. Ryle used to bring an occasional sermon just for the little children of his church. This is a collection of those sermons - delivered with an ease of style, so that the message still can't be missed as your children read them today. Simple, but never shallow, Ryle takes a child by the hand and guides him into deep and great truths in ways that few adults know how to do today. J.C. Ryle. 128 pages

Two Wealthy Farmers	GT13	$ 12.00
This book is outstanding! We do not, however, recommend it for younger children because at one point a man, overcome with despair from a lifetime of sin, takes his own life. We would recommend it for all older children, though, and highly recommend it for adults. The book lays bare many of those sneaky sinful attitudes upon which we put a righteous, Christian facade. In fact, this book could be used to draw up a rather comprehensive list of practical objectives to strive for in rearing godly men and women. This is the story of Mr. Bragwell and Mr. Worthy, one a professing Christian, and one a possessing Christian. The topics of their conversations include keeping the ten commandments as Jesus taught them in the Sermon on the Mount, Christian business ethics, family living, rearing children, and others. There are jewels of wisdom on every page. Old reprint. Hannah More. 188 pages
Uncle John Vassar	BB32	$ 18.00
John E. Vassar, served his Saviour faithfully for almost thirty years traveling as a book seller for the American Tract Society during the mid 1800's. As he traveled he developed into a powerful personal witness for Christ. Known by many as "Uncle John" he was a tremendous prayer-warrior and extremely effective in personal evangelism, as well as a great encouragement to the many churches and pastors he visited from coast to coast. Many pastors would ask him to preach for them, but his pleasant reply was always, "Oh, no! I am not a pastor, but only a shepherd's dog, ready to run after the lost sheep, and try to bring them home to the Shepherd." Allow two well known preachers of the past to give a summary of the man. First, Charles H. Spurgeon had this to say in the Sword & Trowel: "In every special mission he undertook, Uncle John more than justified the designation by which he was known, 'The Shepherd's Dog.' There was a reflex influence attending his labours. If, as the shepherd's dog, he went forth and brought home the wandering sheep, the pastors were stirred up to care for them in the fold. If he endeavoured to raise the churches to a higher spirituality, he left them with a quickened desire, and the fixed resolution to copy an example so Christ-like." Billy Sunday, in his message entitled, He That Winneth Souls Is Wise had this to say of the man: "John Vassar was one of the greatest personal workers of the nineteenth century. He never preached a sermon but that he did personal work. He was a wonder." This book is a must-read for both pastors and church members. Anyone would be challenged by this man's faithful life and selfless ministry! Of this man it could truly be said, ". . . he being dead yet speaketh." Author: T.E. Vassar. 213 Pages.
Understanding the Bible - Bible Commentary on CD	NS01	$ 175.00
Understanding the Bible has one purpose: to help a reader understand the Word of God. Understanding the Bible seeks to accomplish what Nehemiah wrote, "So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading" (Nehemiah 8:8). Understanding the Bible endeavors to give the sense of any given passage of Scripture and help a reader to understand the reading. David Sorenson.

Waiting on God - Andrew Murray	BBM20	$ 12.00

I HAVE been surprised at nothing more than at the letters, that have come to me from missionaries and others from all parts of the world, devoted men and women, testifying to the need they feel in their work of being helped to a deeper and a clearer insight into all that Christ could be to them. Let us look to God to reveal Himself among His people in a measure very few have realised. Let us expect great things of our God. At all our conventions and assemblies too little time is given to waiting on God. Is He not willing to put things right in His own divine way? Has the life of God's people reached the utmost limit of what God is willing to do for them? Surely not. We want to wait on Him; to put away our experiences, however blessed they have been; our conceptions of truth, however sound and scriptural we think they seem; our plans, however needful and suitable they appear; and give God time and place to show us what He could do, what He will do. God has new developments and new resources. He can do new things, unheard of things, hidden things. Let us enlarge our hearts and not limit Him. 'When Thou camest down, Thou didst terrible things we looked not for; the mountains flowed down at Thy presence,' Andrew Murray. 114 pages.

Watchtower's Coming Crisis, The CK1273 $ 10.00

A devastating crisis has the Jehovah's Witness religion facing extinction. Learn how you can use it to share the Gospel with them.

The faith of millions of Jehovah's Witnesses is about to receive a shock.

Chances are that you have never met a real "Jehovah's Witness." While those at your door may claim to be one of Jehovah's Witnesses, their own publications plainly teach otherwise. So, who are the real Jehovah's Witnesses?

The Watchtower Society teaches that they are members of the 144,000 who will be the only ones going to heaven. Membership in this group began with the early apostles. Over the centuries others have been added but the Watchtower declared that the number was completed in 1935. Anyone who claims to be one of Jehovah's Witnesses has to be one of the 144,000 and must be very old now. However, the Watchtower Society teaches that these are the only ones who hear from God and are responsible for Watchtower teaching and leadership.

Because these people are dying, the Watchtower is facing a credibility crisis. So, the Watchtower is quietly manipulating these death figures to keep the Watchtower organization alive! And now, just last year, Watchtower literature quietly began to try to wiggle out of the 1935 closing date for the 144,000. But this only adds further opportunity for you to show the "JW" who comes to your door that he cannot trust the Watchtower with his precious eternal life.

The Watchtower representative at your door believes he will remain on "Paradise Earth" after the coming Armageddon, since only the original 144,000 have any hope of going to heaven. In fact, they are the only ones allowed to take communion. He does not believe he can understand Bible truths without the Watchtower. He is dependent on a publication that, one day soon, will be left without writers to reveal God's truths. Who are those writers? Those who remain of the original 144,000 and they are dying!

Oddly enough, their founder, Charles Taze Russell, never taught the doctrine of the 144,000. In this book, you will learn the true history of this false Watchtower doctrine. You will be surprised to discover that this doctrine is not just a Bible issue. It is also a historical issue and a numbers game that the Watchtower Society has had to manipulate throughout the years to keep that organization alive!

With the information and witnessing strategies in this book, you will be able to plant seeds of doubt and undermine the authority of the Watchtower. The Watchtower knows it is essential that this cornerstone doctrine remain alive if it is going to continue to exist as the spiritual leader for its followers. Time is the enemy of this teaching and they know it. Daniel Rodriguez. 62 pages.

Way Back To God, The - Study of Psalm 51 CCP522-3 $ 25.90

The tragic story of King David's sin is recorded for us in the Word of God. Way Of Life Encyclopedia of the Bible & Christianity - 5th Edition WOL01-5E $ 55.00

This lovely hard cover Bible Encyclopedia contains 600 pages (8.5X11) of information, over 6,000 entries, and over 7,000 cross references. Twenty-five years of research have gone into this one-of-a-kind reference tool. It is the only Bible dictionary/ encyclopedia that is written by a Fundamental Baptist and based strictly upon the King James Bible. It is a complete dictionary of biblical terminology and also features many other areas of research not often covered in Bible reference volumes. Subjects include Bible versions, Denominations, Cults, Christian Movements, Typology, the Church, Social Issues and Practical Christian Living, Bible Prophecy, and Old English Terminology. The Christian will be helped and fortified in his faith through this Bible Encyclopedia. This work does not correct the Authorized Version of the Bible, nor does it undermine the fundamental Baptist's doctrines and practices as many study tools do. Many preachers have told us that apart from Strong's Concordance, the Way of Life Bible Encyclopedia is their favorite study tool.

A missionary said that if he could save only one study book out of his library, it would be the Way of Life Encyclopedia. An evangelist in South Dakota wrote: "If I were going to the mission field and could carry only three books, they would be the Strong's concordance, a hymnal, and the Way of Life Bible Encyclopedia." Missionary author Jack Moorman says: "The encyclopedia is excellent. The entries show a "distilled spirituality."

We Twelve Girls - Isabella Alden K2302 $ 13.00

We Twelve Girls is a collection of letters written by twelve young ladies. Their Bible teacher had given each of them a little booklet with a Bible verse for each week of the year, and had challenged them to live by those verses during the coming year. The girls each promised to do so, and decided to write each other during the year and share how God used those verses to teach them a spiritual truth. These excellent letters will inspire desire toward practical Bible living in the heart of the reader. This is a perfect book for any young lady, and the concepts apply to boys as well. Weapon of Prayer, The - E.M. Bounds BB20 $ 10.00

What is the Christian best noted for? Could it be going to church, reading their Bibles or giving? These and other things are good, but if we are not a praying people, we cannot access God's Power to carry out His great commission and our service for Him. All that we do must be empowered by God and this must be pleaded for in prayer. In the author's words, "All things and everything are dependent on the measure of men's praying. Prayer is the genius and mainspring of life. We pray as we live; we live as we pray." Prayer should be as much a part of our life as each breath we take. E. M. Bounds.

Weed With An Ill Name - Character Building Collection GT11 $ 10.00

This is an excellent story about two children who have a problem with pride and temper. The story relates sins to weeds which grow in our hearts. If we do not keep our hearts weed free, the good seeds will be choked out. Of course, self-control alone will not conquer sin, but it is God who gives us grace to achieve final victory in these areas. This book is an excellent mirror in which young people can see some of their sins.

What Does it Mean to Give Your Child to God? - Booklet	CCP075-4	$	5.90
Giving a child to God means to desire what the Lord desires for that child. Holding on to children is a difficult thing, but in order to give a child in God, we must take our hands off and turn them loose for God's will and purpose. This is to continue all of their lives as we honestly and sincerely believe that God's will and way is best for our children. Of course, we feel very possessive of our children. This is a natural instinct that God puts into the heart of a parent. We have a caring, loving feeling that is quite natural and necessary, but we must remember that we are to be rearing them for someone else. We are rearing them for Christ and for the mates they will meet and marry someday. They are ours, but they are only ours to rear. They are placed into our care and keeping only for a while, although we continue the parent-child relationship throughout the years. Giving our children to God may begin with a simple act of dedication, but it must become a continuous act of surrendering them to the will of God all the days of their lives. What Every Mother Must Teach Her Children	CCP071-6	$	18.00
Today, the world encourages the woman to become independent, to free herself from such responsibilities as a husband and children. Any concept of the biblical privilege to keep the home is lost in zeal for personal "freedom." Such an attitude has inflicted vast amounts of damage to the spirituality of children. Dr. Clarence Sexton, in What Every Mother Must Teach Her Children, studies Proverbs 31 to discover the true role for every mother in the lives of her children. The biblical principles learned will encourage mothers to invest their lives in training their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Dr. Sexton intertwines the principles of the Bible with his own experiences as a child. The biblical truths that each mother can learn will bless the households of those that practice them. "Let us consider what mothers must teach their children. This mother told her son what he must know one item at a time. God gave me a mother who was keenly interested in the matter of instructing her children. Every mother desires certain things for her children, but it is the Lord, and only the Lord, who gives clear direction and discernment for a mother concerning where to place the emphasis in the matter of instructing her children. Each mother must "Imagine a mother seated by her son giving these words of wisdom, instructing him and telling him things that he must hear. These are things that a mother must teach her children." Clarence Sexton. 91 pages

What Is The Emerging Church?	WOL43	$	35.00
This is a thorough examination of this movement, which involves a new approach to missions and church life among some "evangelicals" for these present times. Nothing has made me more conscious of the vicious battle that is raging for the very life and soul of Bible-believing churches than my research into the emergent church. It is frightful, because so many are falling into devil's trap and so many more will doubtless fall in the coming days. Emerging church leaders have the objective of proselytizing our children and grandchildren. In his 2008 book Finding Our Way Again: The Return of the Ancient Practices, Brian McLaren describes his plan to infiltrate churches and Christian institutions that are currently rejecting the emerging church. In this book we explore the following: (1) What is the Emerging Church? (2) A Great Blending and Merging (3) The Liberal Emerging Church (4) The Conservative Emerging Church (5) Brian McLaren: The Emerging Church's Biggest Mouth (6) Cain the First Emergent Worshipper (7) Charles Spurgeon Exposed the Emerging Church. What The Bible Teaches About Drinking Wine - Bruce Lackey	BBL09	$	4.00
A controversial issue handled well using the Word of God to interpret the Word of God. What do the scriptures actually teach about drinking wine? If Christians are to live lives in obedience to God's Word, then we should know what He said on this topic. Dr. Bruce Lackey brings the reader through the Word of God and leads him to a Scriptural conclusion. Bruce Lackey
What They Couldn't - Isabella Alden	K5829	$	22.00
Nothing seems to work out for this family. They are always in debt and can't seem to live within their means. The children seem to need more than the parents can give. Irritation and tension and quarrels seem to reign in the family circle. To add to this, a spinster, hyper-critical aunt has come to live with them. This family does love each other, though they do not seem to know how to show it. They attend church faithfully, but do they really know Christ? To make matters worse, they seem to have no discernment regarding suitable matches for their daughters. Will these lives be ruined too? Oh, what trials they go through! Can anything be done to help this family? Or must they continue on with their downward spiral? An earnest Christian attempts to get them to see "what they could." Is it too late? Or can lives be salvaged? You will want to see for yourself. Isabella Alden. 305 pages.

When Life Is Over - Also Available in Spanish	CK136	$	8.50
Many Christians have witnessed to friends or loved ones, but need a short book that describes God's plan of salvation in more detail than is possible in a small Chick tract. Here is that book. All unsaved people wonder what will happen to them when their life is over. Here, they will find answers that will lead them straight to the cross. Help a loved one learn about the origins of sin, why we are all sinners in need of a Savior, and why Jesus is the only One. Also explained is the importance of blood in forgiveness, and why good works and religion can never save. Also contains a loving, compassionate invitation to trust Christ as Savior. Rick Jones. 64 pages.
Who am I?	CP03X	$	8.50
Who Am I? makes learning about animals fun. Each page features an animal, bird, insect, or reptile that tells the child about itself in an engaging style, hoping to give enough clues to reveal its identity. Read aloud to your children and see who can guess the animal's name first! For children who can read, Who Am I? is an educational activity that is perfect as part of their school day. The correct answer appears on the lower right of each page. 40 pages
Why the King James Bible is the Perfect WORD of GOD	CK1261	$	6.70
The Bible isn't just God's ideas. It contains His actual words. The Bible is God's book. He gave it by inspiration. The words of scripture are God's words. But not only did God give His words to man, He also promised to preserve them... for specific reasons. They are shown to us in the Bible. We believe that we have the perfectly preserved words of God in our 1611 King James Bible, also called the "Authorized Version" or KJV. Today, hundreds of books call themselves Bibles. In this book you will see why they cannot all be the words of God and why only the 1611 KJV is God's perfectly preserved words in English. This book is a "fill-in-the-blank" workbook that requires that the student have a King James Bible. Through its five lessons you will learn that the Bible is God-breathed "scripture." You will see that the Bible clearly claims to be more than just "God's ideas" . . . it is God's actual Words, preserved through the ages for instruction in righteousness. Finally, you see how some modern Bibles actually change God's teachings. This book is useful in a Sunday School class, particularly with young people. It will build faith in the Scriptures and the God who gave them. Gary Miller. 48 pages.
Why We Use the King James Bible - For the Love of the Family - Terry Coomer	TC09	$	4.50
Testimonial from Dr. Don Jasmin, Publisher of the Fundamentalist Digest, concerning Why We Use the King James Bible. "In this 16 page booklet, Dr. Coomer has penned a brief, easy readable, simple and excellent treatise that is self explanatory. Dr. Coomer cites five reasons for exclusive KJB usage: (1) Textual (2) Theological (3) Philosophical (4) Cultural (5) Practical. If you desire to give naive believers some simple, plausible and confirming explanations for exclusive KJB use, this concise booklet sets forth those reasons! KJB advocates ought to purchase this concise treatise by the wagon load and make them available to their undiscerning friends. Pastors should purchase multiple copies for distribution to all new members. Get this book in quantity! You won't be disappointed." On occasion I have been asked why we at Hope Baptist Church use the outdated King James Bible. The issue of the text of the Bible became an issue for me as a Pastor in the early 1980's. As I listened to different people I became concerned about the desire to literally do away with the King James Bible. Sitting in a preacher's meeting several years ago I heard a leader of a fellowship of Independent-Fundamental Baptist Churches state, "The New International Version of the Bible is an easier Bible to read. I would suggest that you go home to your churches and encourage your people to use this new Bible!" That particular fellowship followed the advice of that noted leader and today they are at the liberal end of the New Evangelical movement with churches that no longer have the word Baptist in their church names. Therefore, I decided to study the issue with great care because of the importance it played in my life and the lives of the people God had called me to minister to. I studied and totally read 36 different books written by authors on both sides of the issue. We wanted to create a booklet for the average person in the pew who wants to have a basic understanding of the subject. This booklet will be good for Pastors to give to people in their congregation or outside the church to simply explain the issue. Booklet. Terry Coomer. 16 pages.
Widow's Son, The	GT14	$	10.00
Three short stories, with timely messages on Christian character for young men. The first and primary story, The Widow's Son, tells of a young man leaving a godly mother to learn a trade in the city. He is influenced by evil companions and turns to sinful living, to the sorrow of his mother. But the Lord brought him close to death and awareness of eternity, sobering and changing his heart. American Tract Society. 99 pages
Willingness - Character Curriculum	K4222	$	12.40
Our lives are always blessed and made a little easier by those dear people who have willing spirits. Young people are a real source of joy to parents, teachers, and others when they have learned how to have a willing spirit. And one of the personal rewards of a willing spirit is a much more peaceful life that is rich in the love and affection of others. A person with a willing spirit seldom experiences strife and contention. Are we born with willing spirits? Hardly. It is one of those godly character traits for which we strive. Of course, it probably is not necessary to say that we need to have unwilling spirits when it comes to the temptations of sin. However, where sin is not involved, and we can be of use to others we should learn to willingly put ourselves aside, and energetically launch into the task, whatever it may be. 68 pages.
Winning The Witnesses	CK1267	$	11.80
While serving as an Associate Pastor in 1996, Daniel Rodriguez was instrumental in targeting his city's large Jehovah's Witness population. Construction of a Kingdom Hall was stopped because the strategies in this book either won Witnesses to Christ or destroyed their faith in the Watchtower Society. The step-by-step plan in this practical, easy-reading book will help you to reach Jehovah's Witnesses like you never thought possible. Daniel Rodriguez. 107 pages.
Wisdom - Character Curriculum	K5797	$	12.40
Many people want wisdom, but think it is a gauge of what we know. But wisdom is more about what we do than what we know. It deals with who we are and with the decisions we make. Acting properly most often brings happiness and prosperity. If we are unhappy and things are not going well, it is nearly always because we have been acting unwisely. Taken from the book of Proverbs, here are a few things that wisdom does: "The wise in heart will receive commandments"; "He that refraineth his lips is wise"; "A wise man will hear, and will increase learning"; "The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips." Wise people are usually happy people because they avoid all the trials and vexations of the soul that come from foolish mistakes. There is a right and wrong decision or action for everything. Wisdom knows and chooses the right decision. Can anyone become wise? God's Word says they can if they want. So, let's learn how to get wisdom, and how to use it, shall we? 67 pages.
Wise and Otherwise - Isabella Alden	K3945	$	20.00

In this volume we meet again the characters from Ester Reid, Julia Reid, and the King's Daughter. In each book Isabella Alden has a definite lesson to teach, and this one is such an important one--to completely rid one's self of self! When we are filled with self, we are so positive we are right, our way is so absolutely correct, that we cannot evaluate the valuable input of others. We cannot even know that God is trying to reach us and teach us because we already know. The pastor of the church in this story does immeasurable harm to his people and to himself when he is blinded by self and pride. After a tragedy he comes to realize, "It is all a blank! . . . I don't know where to turn . . . and yet, I am a Christian. I surely am a Christian. I cannot have been preaching the gospel for so many years and know nothing about it. Oh, God, have mercy on me! . . . I have no prop to lean on--nothing but blackness." This man was so full of pride and self, that even as a pastor, he never realized that he did not know God. This book shows how little pride it actually takes to distort our views and thinking. If we are not careful, it is possible we could find ourselves heading down the same path. KOF Old Reprint. Isabella Alden. 266 pages.

With Christ in the School of Prayer - Volume II - Andrew Murray BBM13 $ 14.00

Of all the promises connected with the command, 'ABIDE IN ME' Jn. 15:4,7, there is none higher, and none that sooner brings the confession, 'Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect' Phil. 3:12, than this: 'If ye abide in me...ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you' Jn. 15:7. Power with God is the highest attainment of the life of full abiding." Truly, an enlightening and thought provoking look at this matter of prayer. Andrew Murray. 220 pages

Word of God on Trial, The BB35 $ 6.00

Can we believe God? Do we really have God's preserved word? Is there an absolute authority upon which our faith can rest? These questions make our study together one of the most explosive issues of our generation. In the realm of human relationships, a man's name is no better than his word. In the divine realm. God has magnified His Word even above His name. "... For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." (Psalm 138:2). Man may be as good as his word, but God must have a preserved word which is perfect like His person. We dare not have a Bible which merely contains the Word of God. We must have a Bible which is the Word of God from cover to cover. Today, God's Word is on trial. A handful of intelligentsia over the span of one century has altered the traditional Greek text of the churches which was considered by faith perfect for 1800 years. These men have produced three different revised Greek texts which together have 2,165 Greek words removed, 335 Greek words substituted and 215 Greek words added to the traditional Greek text of the churches. These 3 revised Greek texts have been the basis for most of the 100 or more different translations and paraphrases of the New Testament produced in our generation.

Worship and Serve the LORD as a Family - Booklet CCP043-3 $ 5.90

The light is going out in our nation. The great influence of America is diminishing. If we are not going to lift high the banner of Christ and be an example of godliness for the world, we will have no light to shine. The only hope we have as a nation is for revival. The Bible says that judgment must begin at the house of God. When true revival comes, it will come through the lives of people who have dedicated themselves to Christ, and who are willing to pay the price to allow the Lord an opportunity to use them in a great way.

The light that is left is the light found in Bible-preaching churches. The light that is left is in Christian schools which truly seek to honour and glorify the Lord, and there is light left in Christian homes. May God help each of us to determine to have a Christian home.

Here are some special thoughts that we hope will help as you think about your family. We want to give you some things to consider as you worship and serve the Lord together as a family. Clarence Sexton. 22 pages
